DR. KLOSS ABANDONS MINISTRY

Pastor of Plymouth Congregational Resigns; Declares Belief Churches Not Meeting Call of Modern Life

Will Devote His Time to Study and Research Work; Says Many Films Surpass Religious Societies' Efforts

The church has defeated its own purpose. The churches must, if they wish to fulfill their purpose, spend their time in working out plans to get together, rather than in separating and criticizing each other.

There are many preachers—and some right here in Oakland—who are preaching merely for professional purposes. They are not human.

The man who is devoting his time, money and mind to betterment work must be put in the same class with the consecrated minister even though he has never set his foot inside of a church.

The church with its present ideas is so limited that the people cannot be reached in the manner that they should be reached, and I feel that a complete reorganization is on the way.

The churches of Oakland have wonderful material to work with but in the majority of cases it is being absolutely wasted.

RESIGNS TO TAKE UP OTHER WORK

Framing his criticism of modern religious methods in these and similar phrases, Rev. Charles L. Kloss has resigned the pastorate of Plymouth Congregational church and shortly will quit the pulpit for good. Research work and study will occupy his entire time in the future instead.

According to Dr. Kloss there is no friction whatever between his views and those of the church but that his entire time would be necessary to follow out the plans he has in view. The resignation is to be effective at a date not later than June 1.

"With the church of the world in the condition today as I have observed it here and abroad there are many things that are in the way of unity," said Dr. Kloss. "The subject must be studied from every angle. It must be worked out from the side of the working man and from the religious and humanitarian standpoint."

PASTORS BLAMED FOR PRESENT CONDITION

"The cause of all the trouble in the church today is that the ministers have not held up before the people great unifying ideals. Instead, most of the pulpits have been preaching with a jealousy of doctrine and narrowness of creed, and a self-centered conceit on the part of many of the leaders that truly exemplified the spirit of the Pharisee. There are many preachers—and some right here in Oakland—who are preaching merely for professional purposes. They aren't human."

"Many ministers stress their own particular belief and call themselves believers of the Trinity. I have yet to meet the man who can give a clear definition of the Trinity."

"It doesn't make any difference whether you emphasize the divinity or the humanitarian side of Christ. It's now we know him that matters. We all have different conceptions of things that we see and different ideas of what things represent, but they are trivial compared with the real service which we should render. The Golden Rule is the best thing to follow out in business as well as religion. Unfortunately, it doesn't seem to be followed out very consistently by most churches."

NO MILLIONAIRES IN HALL OF FAME

"The best people in history are those who have exemplified service. There isn't the name of a single millionaire in the Hall of Fame at Washington; they are all names of men who have done some vital service to mankind."

"The foolishness of attacking a man's belief has been proved time after time. Let a man define Jesus as he wants to; that is merely a matter of the intellect."

"The people want a religion of life. The minister in the church, the others in the church, the people and makers of literature in many instances have been ahead of the church in this respect. The man who can help humanity better than I am is going to be a great service as the minister in the pulpit. It makes no difference whether such a man is an ordained minister or not; he is a minister."

JAPANESE BAN STIRS DIPLOMATS

House Committee Division Holds Up Changes in Immigration Law.

By A. O. HAYWARD, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Japanese immigration, a tender subject between the United States and Japan for a score of years, has again cropped up to plague the diplomats of both countries, and today has divided the House immigration committee to a point where changes in the present 3 per cent law are being held up.

A majority of the committee favors writing into the law a provision excluding Japanese from admission into United States territory. This was to be accomplished indirectly by providing that only those aliens eligible to citizenship had been admitted. The United States Supreme court held in a recent decision that Japanese were not of the white race, and were not eligible to citizenship under Federal law.

The State Department objected to inclusion of this provision in the immigration law. It was feared it might bring to a head the slumbering issue with Japan, and interfere with diplomatic negotiations to adjust the matter without bitter feeling or animosity. The majority of the committee wants to go ahead, despite the warnings of the State Department diplomats, but are held back by the more cautious members.

Tentative agreement has been reached by the committee to reduce the immigration restriction to 3 per cent and ease quotas on the 1930 alien resident population, instead of on the 1910 census, as at present. Irrespective of the quotas, it is planned to admit the father, mother, husband or wife, brothers and sisters and minor children of naturalized citizens and aliens who have applied for naturalization, and a minimum quota of 400 for every country from which eligible aliens

This change in the law, it is estimated, would permit of about the same total of immigrants as at present, about 360,000, but would give the larger quotas to the countries of northern Europe and would take care of new States created as a result of the recent war and of old states from which the immigration has been light during the past 30 years.

Bandits Shoot Gas Station Attendant

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Jan. 30.—Clinton Putnam, attendant at a gasoline service station at Ventura, 28 miles south of here, was shot and perhaps fatally injured last night by two bandits who held up the station. Putnam was shot through the right lung. His assailants were not caught.

Officers of Santa Barbara and Ventura counties are scouring the coast and mountain country for the men, who are said to be transients.

Harding Agrees to Act as Arbitrator

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Harding today accepted the invitation extended by Chile and Peru to act as arbitrator under the Tacna-Arica protocol which resulted from the conference held in Washington last year. Formal notification of the President's acceptance was communicated by the State Department to the Chilean and Peruvian ambassadors for transmission to their governments.

POINDEXTER LETTER ADDS TO OLD FEUD

Senator's Wife Promises to Shed More Light on Social Life in Washington; Will Present Different Angle

Too Many Blocs in Congress. "Not to Mention Blockheads." She Says; New Solon Fights Shy of Society

By FRAZER EDWARDS, (United Press Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Wide-spread discussion of the activities of "the Washington social lobby" and the old feud between the ladies of the cabinet and those of the senate sprang up here today over Mrs. Miles PoinDEXTER's letter to a western newspaper, in which she said wives of some cabinet officers furthered their social ambitions at the government's expense.

Stating that she has come to view official life in Washington from an "entirely different angle," Mrs. PoinDEXTER at Annapolis today declared the furor aroused would not come her side. "I am not at all a gossip of the capital's 'four hundred,'" she laughingly stated, "she would write 'a more interesting letter' soon."

Mrs. PoinDEXTER is not directing all her fire at the cabinet. She has this to say in her letter regarding congress: "Congress has too many blocs—the farm bloc, the railroad bloc, the labor bloc—not to mention some of the blockheads that seem to be there."

NEW SENATOR CUTS OUT SOCIETY LIFE

Workings of the social lobby were denounced today by Senator Brookhart, Iowa, who is steering clear of the maze of Washington social life. "I have heard much of the social life before I came to Washington and I strongly condemn this feature of official life here," he said. "I sympathize entirely with the opinion of former Senator Kenyon, who lashed the social bloc in a speech just before he left the senate. But they don't bother me and I haven't time to bother them."

Mrs. PoinDEXTER's letter has brought denials from some cabinet circles. Secretary of War Weeks denied her statement that the war department furnished "good looking army officers" for Mrs. Weeks' functions. He admitted, however, that two army officers introduced guests at his New Year's reception.

Mrs. PoinDEXTER has some choice comments for Senator La Follette and Borah, it was revealed as additional parts of the letter became available here.

SHARP COMMENT ON TWO SENATORS

"La Follette, whom all sane people consider a danger to good Americanism has come forward and delegated himself the leader of the Progressives," she wrote. "I am glad to see that he will have a very small following in either branch of congress outside his own delegation. I doubt if he could get more than three in the senate to follow him. The farmer are not constructive radicals. They want to be protected and will not listen to his leader."

Regarding Borah, she wrote: "In state politics he is an advocate of each state taking care of its own problems, and working out its own problems, so I don't see why he is not willing to let Europe try to work out its own problems."

SEEKS MONEY IN LOBBYISTS WORK

she desired to make money she would become a lobbyist here.

"The life of a member of congress is interesting, but a little know-it-all poor paying proposition. If I were choosing to make money, I would come here and lobby for something. The town seems full of men and women lobbying for some measure."

The senator's wife praised Mrs. Harding as "a most remarkable woman," and stated she has been very popular since she has been in the White House. She was said to be making a good recovery from her illness.

Spaniards Tortured by Morocco Captors

MADRID, Jan. 30.—Spanish soldiers and civilians recently ransomed from their Moorish captors have brought to Madrid stories of the suffering they underwent while in Morocco. They said that on the occasion of Spanish victories several of their number were shot. General Navarro was obliged to do menial work with a ball and chain attached to his leg. Women were imprisoned in a harem.

Germany's Floating Debt Takes Jump

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—Germany's floating debt during the ten days ending January 25 increased by two hundred and ten billion marks to one trillion eight hundred and twenty billion marks.

Spanked Bride Who Stayed Out, Spouse Admits

"He Choked Me Until I Jumped Out Window," Wife Tells Judge.

When Mrs. Maybelle Price, 20-year-old bride failed to come home Saturday night, and did not return to the family domicile, 3270 Macedonia avenue until late the following evening her husband, Thomas E. Price, a barber, took her across his knee and spanked her.

That was the story Price told to Police Judge William Hennessey this morning when he was haled into court to answer to a charge of battery preferred by Mrs. Price. He pleaded guilty to the charge and tomorrow was set for sentence, after Judge Hennessey delivered a stern lecture on corporal punishment.

However, sometime Mrs. Price who is employed at a local store, tells a different tale. "He did not spank me at all," she said through bitter tears which welled from eyes of cerulean blue. "He grabbed me while I lay in bed and choked me. See your honor."

And she exhibited marks on her white neck—and shoulders. "It is true I spend Saturday night away from home," she continued. "My husband had been out almost every night last week and Saturday night spent with a friend, Mrs. May Gardner, 1516 Brush street. We went to a dance Sunday night. I went to a dance hall and then went home."

WAKENED BY CHOKING, CLAIM

"After I went to bed I was awakened by some one choking me. I thought I would die. My husband pulled me out of bed and continued to choke me."

"Finally I broke away and jumped out of the bed room window. It was seven feet. "I was clad only in a nightgown," she said, "and it was raining hard, but I was afraid to go back in the house and run in my bare feet all the way to the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Boyer, 3230 Macedonia avenue, where I spent the night. He chased me all the way."

After both Price and his wife, who swore to the complaint which resulted in her spouse's arrest, had told their stories, Judge Hennessey delivered a brief but caustic lecture.

"Even if you did only spank her," he said, "spanking is for children, and when a man and woman are married they cease to become children."

"Tomorrow for sentence," concluded the court, and the marital troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Price closed for the day.

"I have a lot of other things I want to tell too," went on Mrs. Price, determinedly, after court, "but I didn't get a chance."

She exhibited her booied, light brown locks of curly hair. "My husband bobbed my hair himself, and then afterwards he told me it would make me look cheap and sporty. Does it?"

Price declared that his wife failed to come home Saturday night, and did not return until 11:45 a. m. Sunday. Then, he said, she knocked on the front door, and because he didn't open it quick enough, she went to the rear of the house and broke down the door.

HUSBAND GETS SCOLDING BY JUDGE

"Then when she couldn't tell where she was," he said, "I spanked her. It is just what she deserved and I'd do it to any woman under the circumstances. She had it coming. It's all about me choking her. If I did that, I'd have killed her."

"And I don't go out and run around nights either," she says. "Price is a barbarian for children."

Farrar-Tellegen Suit Shows Triangle

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—(United Press.)—A dark, small woman of Spanish type, today is the central figure in the Farrar-Tellegen divorce suit, following testimony yesterday before Referee Thomas Mahoney.

Jack Bogardus, grocer, and August Larsen, operator of small fishing boats, told of how they saw Tellegen and the woman together in Long Beach, it was learned. The actor, they testified, had a bungalow just outside the town and Bogardus said he saw the woman there when he delivered groceries.

Lew Dockstader Dying of Injury

LEW DOCKSTADER, veteran minstrel, today is dying in a local hotel. Dockstader, who is 62 years old and weighs 200 pounds, slipped on the ice and fell last night while returning to his hotel after a performance at a local theater. He made his way to the hotel and went to bed.

GREEKS CALL TROOPS FOR WAR MOVE

Turkish-British Dispute Over Mosul Oil Fields Formally Comes Before Session of League of Nations

Two Conventions Developed By Lausanne Parley Signed By Kemal's Representatives and Athens Delegates

GENEVA, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Greek minister at Bern, through the newspapers has notified Greeks of the class of 1923 to hold themselves in readiness for a call to the colors. He said there would be no exemptions.

PARIS, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The dispute between Great Britain and Turkey over the Mosul oil fields, involving the oil producing fields of Mosul, was brought before the council of the League of Nations today by the Earl of Balfour, who presented Lord Curzon's note emphasizing war menace in Near East and asking the league's intervention. The council took no action as it is awaiting an invitation from the Turks as to whether they will accept the league's jurisdiction.

Mosul, said Lord Balfour, was a question for the league to consider, because the Iraq was mandated territory, Great Britain acting in that territory in behalf of the League of Nations. Lord Balfour assured the council it was the desire of the British government that the Turks be invited to sit with the council in the Mosul case, which Great Britain desires to have the league arbitrate on an equal footing with the other members.

TURKS, GREEKS SIGN CONVENTIONS

LAUSANNE, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two conventions growing out of the delicate negotiations of the Lausanne peace conference were signed today between Turkey and Greece. One provides for the mutual return of prisoners of war and hostages. The other puts into effect the compulsory exchange of populations arranged.

The signatories were Ismet Pasha and Fuad Nur Bey for Turkey and MM. Venizelos and Caramanos for Greece.

Colonel Plastiras, the Greek revolutionary leader, whose unannounced arrival here has created much speculation, was present in uniform at the brief ceremony. The conventions will become effective immediately, irrespective of the date of the general peace treaty, but the impression is growing that the arrangements for the compulsory exchange of populations may never be carried out, as both Greece and Turkey are likely to decide it will be undesirable.

STATUS OF ALIENS GIVEN SPECIAL CLAUSES

Article XXVI of the political clauses in the main treaty declares the senators arrogate the capitalizations concerning the regime for foreigners in Turkey, but specify that no provision touching this regime will be put into operation.

Other notable points in the draft are the renunciation by Turkey of all her rights to territories beyond her frontiers as fixed by the peace treaty. This implies the definite abandonment of the districts detached from Turkey which now are under the mandate of foreign powers.

The islands of Imbros and Tenedos pass from Greek to Turkish sovereignty, but have autonomous rights. Turkey recognizes the British annexation of Cyprus. The Maritza river is fixed as a boundary in Europe. Turkey renounces all her rights in Asia Minor and Greece gets the railroad station at Karagatsch.

Diplomatic Booze Capacity Delicate

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—If any limitations are placed on the amount of liquor that a foreign embassy may import into Washington, Congress will have to make them, and not President Harding, it was stated at the White House this afternoon.

President Harding, it was stated, believes that it would be a delicate undertaking to attempt to establish "diplomatic capacity."

Night Sessions in Senate Proposed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The attempt of Republican leaders in the senate to hasten a vote on the Lenroot-Anderson agricultural bill failed today, and announcement was made by Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, that as a result of the failure he would ask for night sessions beginning tomorrow and continuing until the measure is passed.

NEW FRENCH ACTS START RUHR RIOTS

Hostile Outbreaks Occur at Many Points as Invaders Take Further Repressive Steps Against Residents

Women Lashed With Whips, Germany's Foreign Office Reports; Curfew Rules to Be Enforced Over Region

PARIS, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The French Federation of Labor at the opening today of its annual meeting with 600 delegates in attendance voted a resolution protesting against the "repressive measures, imprisonments and arbitrary searches," in the Ruhr.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—A charge that women employees of the telegraph office at Dusseldorf, in the Ruhr, "have been driven with blows of riding whips from their offices" was made in a German foreign office statement received today at the German embassy here.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—Huge anti-French demonstrations throughout the Rhineland and the Ruhr this afternoon answered the tightening grip of the invaders. Hostile outbreaks at Bonn, Dortmund, Aix La Chapelle, Bochum, Mannheim and other Rhine cities followed. Another anti-French demonstration was held in Cologne, where the police a proclamation forbidding any civilian activity in the streets between 10 p. m. and 6 a. m. The maximum penalty afforded by the French law of five years' imprisonment or a ten million mark fine is the penalty for violation of the order.

MAIENCE, Jan. 30.—(By International News Service.)—German railroads today voted in favor of a general strike as a protest against French invasion.

By GUS E. OEHM, United Press Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—Guerrilla warfare with weapons—Germany's name for the passive sabotage of the Ruhr—met French coercion in the occupied area at every turn today.

The invaders extended the zone of martial law until virtually the entire Ruhr, most of the Rhineland was under military rule. Moers, Homberg and seven other cities were declared in a state of siege.

Wholesale expulsion of German officials was under way. More than 4000 burghers were local authorities were sent under guard to unoccupied territory.

ANTAGONISM OF RUHR RESIDENTS INCREASES

Antagonism of the populace increased with each new aggressive act of the invaders. Telegraphers and telephone workers struck or mixed up French lines of communication so that they were useless.

Correspondents of Berlin sent bitter dispatches to their offices under language. They refused, whereupon the troops cut all wire communications with Berlin isolating the Ruhr.

REPORT OF 20 SLAIN DENIED BY FRANCE

PARIS, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The French foreign office declared today there was no truth in the report (printed this morning by a Paris newspaper) that twenty Germans had been killed in a clash with French troops at Boppart, near Bingen. There has been no such trouble at Boppart as reported, it was stated.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN IS CHARGED

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—An attempt to wreck the train on which General Weygand and Minister of Public Works Letourneur were travelling to Dusseldorf from Paris is reported to have occurred at Dueren last evening. Other incidents of sabotage, such as the wrecking of signal boxes on the Ruhr railroads, have also come to light.

England Likely To Accept Plan For Paying U. S.

Prospects Brighter After Cabinet Meet; No Better Terms, Chancellor Says.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(By International News Service.)—President Harding will be "both surprised and disappointed" if an agreement is reached on the basis of the terms carried back to London by Chancellor Stanley Baldwin, it was officially stated at the White House this afternoon. The President is confident of an early agreement.

By DAVID M. CHURCH, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The British cabinet considered the Anglo-American debt question today without taking a decisive decision on acceptance or rejection of the American terms for the funding of the $4,500,000,000 obligation.

It was announced through the foreign office that the cabinet would meet again tomorrow. It is semi-officially stated that the chances for acceptance of the American terms are much brighter.

The cabinet today listened to an appeal from Chancellor of the Exchequer Stanley Baldwin that the terms of the United States funding commission be accepted. Baldwin said the government could not assure no better terms could be obtained.

Prior to the meeting the "die hards" declared they would not consent to the American terms, while Bonar Law stated he was entering the meeting with an open mind.

BONAR LAW THINKS TERMS "TOO SEVERE"

Bonar Law is known to hold the opinion that the American terms are "too severe" for England in her present financial difficulties, but he is being told daily by other ministers, by bankers and by influential newspapers that the best course is to accept the terms because they are the best Britain can get.

Financiers are urging acceptance on the ground it will assist business. They fear that rejection will depress the value of the British pound.

It is possible that before a decision is reached, formal query will be sent to Washington to ascertain if the United States will consent to a reopening of debt funding operations if Great Britain accepts the present terms. These terms call for a 2 per cent interest rate for ten years with an increase of one-half per cent subsequently and a sinking fund to be created by imposing one-half of one per cent. The debt is about $4,500,000,000.

Troops Urged to Fight Bootleggers

CLINTON, Ind., Jan. 30.—(By International News Service.)—A warning from W. A. Satterlee, prosecuting attorney, that troops were needed today, followed the third death in the rioting at Clinton, near here, a letter today to the federal prohibition enforcement office, admitted that his staff was powerless to stop bootlegging in the town.

Mell Obravovich is dead. Steve Karanovich is in jail, charged with the killing as the result of another outbreak at a wedding at which 11.500 liquor is said to have been consumed. Two men were killed Sunday in another drunken riot.

Credit For Germany Opposed by Mellon

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Secretary Mellon, in a letter today to Chairman McCumber of the Senate finance committee, expressed his opposition to a loan to Germany.

Under a million dollar credit for the German government to buy foodstuffs in the United States. He declared that it was in contravention of the treasury department's policy "that foreign governments desiring to find finance in the United States should appeal to the investing public and not seek government aid."

BANDITS ROB AIR CAPTAIN OF $42,000

Paymaster of Langley Field and Sergeant Kidnaped, Relieved of Station's Payroll and Tied Fast to Trees

Airmen Flying Low in Search of Missing Officers Find Victims. Who Were Seized Soon After Leaving Bank

By UNITED PRESS, LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 30.—Bandits today kidnaped Captain Norman Cota paymaster of Langley Field, and robbed him of the station's payroll of $42,000.

Airmen flying low in a wide flung hunt for the missing paymaster found Captain Cota and Sergeant first Lt. Goff, his clerk, tied to trees near Big Bethel, about nine miles from Hampton, Va., where the kidnaping took place according to advices to Langley Field.

Cota and Goff declared they were made up by two criminals a short distance from the bank, as they were leaving for Langley Field. Threatening them with weapons, the bandits disarmed the officers, took the money, carried them to the tree and tied them.

Two enlisted men who had been with Captain Cota were found near Big Bethel. They said they had been tied to a tree by the bandits and had broken loose.

Washington, Jan. 30.—(By International News Service.)—The War Department this afternoon authorized the use of troops from Fort Monroe and Fort Eustis to track down the bandits who stole a $42,000 army payroll at Langley Field today.

Student Flyers Win Judgment in Suit

When the Clarke Aerial Service Company accepted money from two students in flying on the promise that the two would be taught aviation, the officials of the company should have carried out the contract, according to Superior Judge J. S. Koford, who gave judgment today against the company in favor of Junko Kubota and Chuta Nagatoki.

Testimony was offered by Attorney D. A. Knapp, representing the Japanese plaintiffs, that they had paid the Clarke company $100 and $500 respectively, for which they were to have received thirty-six lessons each. It was stated in court that one received three lessons and the other thirteen and that although they called repeatedly at the flying field, the company refused to give further instruction.

Judgment for the full amount was given in their favor by the court.

is a great minister if he is helping the world to better itself.

"There are noon-day luncheons of businessmen where the lecture or program has as great an influence as a church service and sermon might have had. Movies which exploit sacrifice and duty to the other man have as far reaching an influence toward the betterment of the city as a Sunday school lesson on the same subject might have. Short stories and newspaper editorials of uplifting effects have their effects. In the class of those who are helping the world belong the men who have spent their entire lives in research work and laboratories to give the world a new scientific discovery.

"The man who is devoting his time, money and mind to work of betterment must be put in the same class with the consecrated minister even though he has never set his foot inside of a church.

"This class is reaching people in a way that they can never be reached by the church at any time, much less in its present attitude.

"The way in which the average church organization is now constituted there are so many details of administration that a pastor to serve the church as is expected of him, can not treat that policy in a fair manner.

"The average church, I think, would not permit a pastor to present a program in which all doctrinal belief was disregarded and the entire time and effort devoted to a constructive program to work for the community.

CHURCHES FAIL TO REACH PEOPLE.

"The church with its present ideas is so limited that the people cannot be reached in the manner that they should be reached, and I feel that a complete re-organization is on the way.

"If the people of Oakland and its churches want to perform a real service for the coming generation let them get together on a great movement that will look for the betterment of the city. Take the administration out of politics and stress the things that will unite us regardless of creeds. We must emphasize better child life for to have better citizens we must begin at the bottom and concentrate on the youth.

"The churches of Oakland have wonderful material to work with, but in the majority of cases it is being absolutely wasted. During the war the time of need brought together men and women of every denomination to work to one good end. The effect of that unity is today practically destroyed, except as a lesson of what could be done. It will be a long hard work, however, to get people to act together who, because of prejudices and diverse training, are unconsciously neutralizing each other's work. No matter what a man's theological views may be he has the proper spirit and is leading a proper life, so long as he is devoting his time, mind and money to the betterment of humanity.

"The line between the ordained and the unordained ministry has been drawn by man alone. It is purely arbitrary. All laying on of hands and rites of consecration may be confirmatory and helpful, but are not essential.

"The word of the hour is co-operation, combine, unite. It is at once the word of Nature rightly interpreted, and of the Gospels.

"There are indications that the greatest years of the ages are before us and we in Oakland are going to have a big hand in it. I intend to spend the next years in study and research work for when that time is coming. The churches must, if they wish to fulfill their purpose, spend their time in working out plans to get together rather than separate and criticize one another.

TOO MUCH STRESS LAIN ON CREEDS.

"Too much stress has been laid by the church in Oakland, nationally and in fact world wide on formalities which in reality are matters of intellect, with the result that the church has defeated its own purpose."

This summer Dr. Kloss will conduct another tour to Europe, after which he will remain in London for a short time. Dr. Kloss has at various times been invited to preach in London pulpits.

His resignation is to be effective no later than June 1. Dr. Lynn T. White of the Pacific Theological Seminary of San Anselmo will occupy the pulpit of the church for six weeks beginning some time next month, however, while Dr. Kloss will supply in the pulpit of the First Congregational church of San Francisco in place of Dr. Gordon, the pastor, who is now in Europe.

Dr. Kloss intends to spend his time after his resignation becomes effective, in writing, lecturing, supplying in other pulpits, traveling and study. He will make his home in Oakland.

Many Auto Speeders Fines Assessed

SAN LEANDRO, Jan. 30.—Anthony Quintal, 19, 1934 Twenty-second avenue, Oakland, appeared for the second time in as many weeks before Judge W. J. Gannon yesterday, on a speeding charge.

He was fined $25. A third offense, he was informed by Judge Gannon, would deprive him of his license for one year.

Despite the fact that he produced written testimony of a dependable speedometer, C. H. Beaulieu, 1132 East Fourteenth street, Oakland, was fined $25.

Since last year and other forms of traffic violation were collected from the following: A. J. Werbaneth, $39; Thirteenth street, Oakland, $10; Tony Lago, San Leandro, $10; A. Annis, 447 North East street, San Jose, $10; E. R. Booker, San Jose, $15; Frank Guido, Livermore, $10; Carl Van Valkenburgh, Hayward, $10; Lawrence W. Spaine, $2; Miss M. Jensen, 2446 Telegraph avenue, Oakland, $25; L. B. Albertson, Newark, $10; J. J. Grassfield, 1553 Thirty-fifth avenue, Oakland, $10; A. C. Bloch, 857 Station place, Berkeley, $10; George L. Fletcher, Hollister, $15.

KLANSMEN FLEE AS N. Y. POLICE PREPARE RAID

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Seventy-two men rushed pell-mell from a meeting in Brooklyn and fled through nearby streets and alley ways when they were "tipped" last night that a bomb squad from headquarters police station was surrounding the place.

The detectives were in command of Lieutenant James Gagan, who last week captured eight men and confiscated a Ku Klux uniform, a bottle of whiskey and two blackjacks after a mysteriously conducted meeting in a traffic court.

Last night's exodus from the hall left the police with nothing more tangible than a conviction they had interrupted a Klan klava. A number of automobiles parked outside the hall were abandoned by those in flight.

closed roof garden on the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets, next Friday night.

The Press Club of Oakland was organized recently. Its membership includes newspaper men, city and managing editors, writers, artists, men who are identified with general newspaper work, judges, lawyers, city and county officials, professional and business men and former newspaper men who reformed before it was too late and took up activities outside of journalism.

PRESS CLUB PLANS.

Those in charge of the activities of the Press Club of Oakland have announced it to be their purpose not only to make the Press Club of Oakland a meeting place for newspaper men and their friends, but a distinctive organization that will contribute to Oakland's artistic endeavors as well.

The house-warming to be held Friday night will be the formal inauguration of the club. It will be an invitational. The club's officers appointed an entertainment committee composed of Robert Shaw, E. S. Pladwell, Harold Fitzgerald, William Vaughn and Harold Sweetser and told them to cover the job thoroughly. The committee has reported to have.

PROGRAM FOR EVENING.

M. A. Anderson, manager of the Orpheum theater; Harry Cornell, manager of Pantages theater; Nat Holt, manager of Loew's State theater; Jim Pilling, manager of the Century theater; George Eber, manager of the Fulton theater; Eugene Perry, manager of the Franklin theater; Jack Gault, manager of the American theater, and Fred Dahnen, local manager of the T. and D. theater, will be contributing factors in the night's entertainment. There will be singing and dancing numbers, stories, vaudeville offerings, speeches by Mayor John L. Davis, Superior Judge George Samuels, Appellate Judge A. F. St. Sure, District Attorney Ezra Decort, Gerald Beaumont, former TRIBUNE staff member and author; Appellate Judge William H. Waste, an introductory address by Roy H. Dunforth, president of the club, smokes, good fellowship in everything.

The latch string of the Press Club of Oakland hangs out on a doorway in the Pacific building. The club's quarters are temporary. A bulging membership list has made necessary the selection of more commodious quarters, which will be occupied within a few weeks.

Harding Elected On Star Directorate

MARION, Ohio, Jan. 30.—President Harding yesterday was elected chairman of the board of directors of the Harding Publishing Company, which publishes the Marion Daily Star.

GIVEN DIVORCE FROM CHAUFFEUR

Grand Opera Star Allowed to Resume Maiden Name; Principals Absent.

Madame Margaret Matzenauer, grand opera star, is free today.

She was awarded a divorce in San Francisco yesterday by Superior Judge Murasky from her chauffeur-husband, Floyd Giotzbach of Carmel. With the decree goes the right of the prima donna to resume her maiden name.

Neither Madame Matzenauer nor Giotzbach was in court for the final hearing. The divorce, according to her attorney J. J. Lermen, is in New York City singing in the Metropolitan Opera Company. Giotzbach was represented by his counsel, J. Maxwell Poyser, who said his client is in Arizona.

A letter to Mrs. Lottie Fratties of Carmel, whom the prima donna named as a co-respondent and the cause of the trouble between herself and Giotzbach, was introduced as evidence together with three canceled checks, each for $100, given by the singer to her husband and endorsed by him over to Mrs. Fratties and cashed at Monterey.

FRENCH FLIER IN AIR 8 HOURS WITH A GLIDER

CHERBOURG, Jan. 30.—The French aviator, Andre Maneyrol, has beaten all world glider records by remaining in the air for eight hours, one minute and 25 seconds. He took off at 1:13:34 and landed at 9:15. The flight was made in a pelting rain but there was a favorable southwest breeze.

Lieutenant Thorst, of the French army, on January 3, last, set a world's glider record at Cherbourg of 7 hours 5 minutes.

Old Hotel Grounds May Be City Park

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 30.—An option on the grounds of the old Ambassador hotel, burned here two years ago, was secured by the Santa Barbara Chamber of Commerce. The option is for ninety days, at the end of which the grounds may be purchased at a price of $250,000, it was announced. The grounds contain 30 acres, perfectly adapted for a city park, for which purpose they will be used in the event of their purchase, which was said to be virtually certain.

Tail Spin Kills Honolulu Aviators

HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press).—First Lieutenant Rupert Julian, an aviator attached to Schofield Barracks, and an enlisted man accompanying him were killed yesterday afternoon when the plane in which they were flying went into a tail spin at an altitude of about 700 feet and crashed to the ground.

Wife of Engineer Sues For Divorce

Lawrence J. Dowling, a station engineer for the Western Pacific railroad, has "an insanely jealous and violently quarrelsome" nature, which, combined with an "excessive use of jackass liquors," caused him to treat her with extreme cruelty, declares Mrs. Rachel T. Dowling in suit for divorce.

The wife says her husband frequently accused her falsely of associating with other men, using brutal language. This treatment came to a climax, she says, on Sunday when Dowling ordered her to pack her clothes and "throw her out of the house" after "brutally and mercilessly choking" her.

The wife seeks a restraining order to prevent her husband disposing of the household effects in their home at 58 Frisbie street, liberty bonds and money in bank. She asks for $50 a month alimony. They married in Oakland December 24, 1922.

Treat Promised at Symphony Concert

The concert to be given by the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra at the Oakland auditorium theater Friday evening promises to be notable. Under the leadership of Conductor Alfred Hertz, this orchestra will render, among other compositions, Wagner's "Tannhauser" overture.

Other numbers on the program include the Cesar Franck Symphony in D Minor, and Beethoven's Concerto in D Major.

In the latter work Louis Persinger, violinist and concertmaster of the orchestra, will be the soloist. Persinger received his musical education at Leipzig Conservatory and was a pupil of Ysaye in Brussels.

For $50 a month alimony. They married in Oakland December 24, 1922.

Major Grant Hears

STOCKTON, Jan. 30. — Complaints and charges by disabled World war veterans at the government training farm on Rough and Ready island near here are being investigated by Major U. S. Grant III and an assistant, M. E. Lynch. Two meetings have been held with the men at the farm and a further conference is under way today.

The veterans say that George R. McLeod, farm superintendent, is not conducting the 1100-acre farm in their best interests. The full nature of the charges are not made public, but Major Grant said today that if any fault be found at the conclusion of the investigation it will be removed at once. A spirit of dissatisfaction has been growing for some time at the farm.

U. S. AID ASKED TO SAVE STATE'S REDWOOD GROVES

Resolution Urges Congress to Buy Strip Along Northern Highway.

By E. VAN LIER RIBBINK.
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—A resolution asking Congress to act in saving the Redwood forests along the highway from Sausalito to Crescent City, in Sonoma, Mendocino, Humboldt and Del Norte counties, was introduced yesterday by Assemblyman Dr. G. H. Douglas of Del Norte.

Dr. Douglas, who is widely known as a warm friend and protector of California's scenic attractions, asks that a strip of at least 500 feet on either side of the highway be purchased by the government as a national redwood park. Dr. Douglas points to the fact that two years ago the State of California appropriated $300,000 for the purchase of a redwood park in Humboldt county and that the state cannot afford at present to do more. The resolution asks that the government buy the strip of the "redwood" highway in Del Norte county to get the "redwood" timber to market and to provide access to the forests in case of forest fires.

U. S. AID NECESSARY.
In explaining his reasons for putting these matters up to the Federal Government, Dr. Douglas

"Del Norte county is 71 per cent national forest. The comparatively small number of land owners in Del Norte county have constructed every foot of wagon road in the national forest of the county and it is about time for the government to do something."

Dr. Douglas says that government departments realize that something should be done, and in the U. S. Department of Agriculture as stating that "What has been done toward building roads into the national forest is hardly a beginning of what is needed to make these great public properties play their full part in the nation's life. The roads that have been built, and those for which funds are in sight, are only a first step."

RAY EXEMPTION PLAN.
Closely related to Dr. Douglas' bill for a redwood national forest, is the measure introduced by Senator A. Burlingame Johnson of Pasadena, for a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to exempt from taxation those timberlands which are used for re-forestation purposes. Senator Johnson has held a series of meetings with lumbermen from the northern part of the state, and is in touch with the state forestry department on this measure.

Assemblyman Chas. W. Cleary of Tulare county yesterday introduced several bills looking toward greater safety in the mining industry. Evidently these measures originate from the argonaut mine disaster experience.

Senator Cleary's bill asks that mine rescue stations be established in the mining districts of California, and that $10,000 be appropriated for this purpose that secondary modes of ingress and egress be constructed from the mines; and that the safety of the men employed in the mines be provided for by requiring inter-communications of adjacent mines at or near working levels.

GRAND JURY ACTION.
Senator Frank M. Carr of Oakland submitted a constitutional amendment, providing that grand jury testimony must show "reasonable cause" before a person can be indicted and also that defendants shall, immediately after taking the stand be provided with a complete transcript of their testimony. Senator Carr claims that the people are often indicted on the flimsiest evidence, and his amendment is intended to change this state of affairs.

Assemblyman Charles F. Reinhardt of San Diego introduced a bill to grant to the city of San Rafael the salt marsh and tidal lands belonging to the state within the present city boundaries, including the right to "wharf out" therefrom.

Cost of Campaign Against Measure

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—(By The Associated Press.)—A statement of the amount of money spent by the various power companies in Northern California in the recent campaign against the Water and Power act, will be filed today by Herbert L. Cornish and Estance Cullinan, it was announced tonight. The statement will show an actual expense of approximately $200,000. Cullinan, who directed the campaign, was paid $25,000. W. D. Deibert received $11,000 for expenses, according to the statement. It is understood that $180,000 was spent by power companies in the southern part of the state against the measure.

Movement to Wipe Out Game Board

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—A bill abolishing the fish and game commission and placing its work under a director selected from the civil service list by the governor, was introduced by Assemblyman Dr. G. H. Douglas of Del Norte.

A 10-cent increase for fishing and hunting licenses is also provided in a Morrison bill. He presented a measure making it a misdemeanor to, while hunting, shoot human beings or animals.

One of the bills introduced by Douglas is a measure to be introduced in another Morrison measure.

Oakland Charter Measure Passed

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30 (United Press).—The assembly today adopted the resolution, already adopted in the senate, approving amendments to the Oakland city charter.

ASSEMBLY OIL INVESTIGATION NEAR COLLAPSE

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—"One more investigation that failed to materialize." Such was the exclamation of a veteran legislator, who, after a long and arduous day yesterday, after the finish of the inquiry into the California oil industries, which was started in rather hectic fashion some two weeks ago, before the Assembly committee on oil industries.

There seems little doubt that this is indeed the end of this much heralded investigation, which was originated by resolution of Assemblyman "Franklin" Johnson of Los Angeles, and which heard Mark Rogers of Oakland, former fuel administrator, as the one and only witness.

After the hearing had dragged on for some time, Assemblyman Thomas M. Carlson of Richmond became impatient and made a motion to "table" the session resolution. This, however, was defeated by a vote of four yeas.

Thereupon the committee decided to adjourn until after the constitutional recess, leaving it optional with its chairman whether or not he will deem it advisable to call another meeting when the Assembly reconvenes.

BROKEN-LEG WEDDING.
CHICAGO.—Henry Lutz was married despite the fact that on the way to the altar he broke his leg. It was a wooden leg.

Legislature met in caucus yesterday under the leadership of Assemblyman E. T. Christopher of Hayward and Chris Fox of Berkeley. It was decided that the ex-service legislators would stand as a unit for legislation proposed by the different ex-service men.

James Jack Brennan of Berkeley, chairman of the legislative committee of the American Legion, was present at the caucus.

The Alameda delegation caucused in the morning and the government and the university division, will be held tomorrow, instead of today, as previously announced in The TRIBUNE.

WATER AND POWER BILL CAMPAIGN COST $158,000

Opponents of Measure Will Give Expense Accounting At Hearing Today.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—(United Press.)—The Senate investigating committee will this afternoon continue its probe into the expense accounts of factions which camped in the water and power bill campaign, defeated in the election last November.

Representatives of the water and power corporations will be called at today's hearing. Attorney Douglas Thompson of San Francisco will perhaps be the chief witness for the utilities companies.

The hearing on the water and power bill opened yesterday afternoon with Randolph Spreckels, San Francisco banker, and well-known financier, the main witness.

Spreckels was one of the prime organizers of the state campaign committee for the California Water and Power act, which spent in excess of $158,000 in support of the defeated measure.

SPRECKELS PAID $106,000.
Of this amount, according to testimony, Spreckels donated $106,825.11 from his private funds. William Kent, chairman of the committee, gave $5000; John H. Haynes, vice-chairman, donated $14,798; and Charles R. Smith of New York subscribed $5000. The balance was secured from a large number of small subscribers.

R. W. Wise, private cashier for Spreckels, was also called at yesterday's hearing. He testified that his employer's donation was made up in small amounts, paid from week to week to meet any deficit which occurred in conducting the campaign for the Water and Power act.

C. Davidson of Sacramento received the largest sum for advancing the campaign, the testimony disclosed. He was campaign manager and was paid $21,400 for his services; $250 weekly salary, with a $199 weekly expense account.

Included in the several score disbursements to individuals was one of $500.95 to Franklin H. Hershorn, Santa Clara, political observer, who was employed to advance the campaign.

WHERE MONEY WENT.
Another item of $385.27 went to Gifford Pinchot, noted western politician, who came west to address the League of California Municipalities during the campaign, and was paid his expenses.

The testimony revealed that the committee expended $4339.58 for postage; $16,960.58 for advertising; $11,514.12 for publicity, including campaign meetings and numerous meetings; $7358.40 for circulation of petitions to assure the measure being placed on the ballot, and $12,595.72 for distribution of literature advocating the bill.

The investigation yesterday was marked by the comparative silence of Attorney William Kehoe of San Francisco, secured to assist in the conduct of the expenses of advocates or opponents of measures voted on last fall. The attorney was attacked from the Senate last week as having been connected with Spreckels in an advisory capacity, and remained out of the questioning yesterday. Senator Jones and other members of the committee conducted the examination.

Spreckels and Wise were asked to submit to the Senate committee further detailed reports of expenses. A list of all employees hired to work for the Water and Power act was requested, together with the amount paid each; also the amount of collections for the campaign turned in by the field men.

Water Court Proposed to Put an End to Litigation

By E. VAN LIER RIBBINK.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—A constitutional amendment which would establish the control of water rights in California, and which is considered by many as the most important measure yet introduced in the 1923 session of the legislature, was today submitted to the consideration of the senate by Senator Will R. Sharkey of Martinez.

The amendment proposes the establishment of a water court, which shall handle all water litigation, and which shall take all matters relating to water rights and disputes out of the superior courts. Appeal from the decisions of the water court shall lie direct from that body to the supreme court. The water court shall have exclusive power to grant rights and to hear all applications. Condemnation proceedings, as ordered by the court, shall be instituted by the attorney-general.

THREE WATER DISTRICTS.
For the purposes of the water court, the state is divided in three districts under Senator Sharkey's constitutional amendment. These districts are Alpine, Calaveras, San Joaquin, Contra Costa, Alameda and San Francisco counties in one section; the counties of Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, and the district of San Bernardino.

The proposed water court is to have five members, holding office for life, and consisting of three engineers, certified by the American Society of Civil Engineers, and two attorneys, certified by the California Bar Association. The members are to be appointed by the governor at an annual salary of $10,000 each.

In explaining the necessity which exists at present for the handling of water litigation, which is clogging the courts, Senator Sharkey pointed to the fact that this water litigation has cost thousands upon thousands, that it has been protracted for years, and in some instances for decades.

TIME FOR CHANGE.
He states that, from all this litigation, and from various rulings, the state now has "a very large body of pretty well settled law," and that the time has now arrived to apply whatever is good in these laws, and to eliminate whatever is not pertinent, and that the carrying out of these laws should be in the hands of a body of experts.

He added that the courts have not been able to "produce much order from the chaos of disputes," and pronounced ordinary court procedure, both in the state and in taking evidence, as being "cumbersome and slow for large scale settlements."

In this connection he claims that "we do not have any adequate procedure whereby a court which has jurisdiction of water rights may constantly enforce its jurisdiction by a system of water masters to distribute the water, neither does our system provide a means of acquiring any new water rights which, by virtue of their more acquisition, will be adjudicated against prior water rights. The consequence is that water rights to entire streams have been adjudicated in only a few cases, comparatively speaking, and such adjudications as have been made, have been on the smaller streams."

NEED FOR AMENDMENT.
In the course of his statement on the proposed constitutional amendment, Senator Sharkey goes on to say:

"With the immensely increasing use of water in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, the water right situation has become more and more complicated, and promises to become still more complicated in the next few years. Therefore, because the successful development of the interior valleys of California depends upon the use of water, it is obvious that progress here will be seriously retarded unless a means is provided whereby the water rights situation may be simplified and stabilized. In other words, we must produce a situation in which water rights may be bought and sold with as much ease and certainty and assurance as our lands can be bought and sold."

TITLES NOT FIXED.
"At present, no abstract or title company or experienced lawyer is willing to give an unqualified certificate as to the title to most of the water rights which people are claiming in this State. The water right of anyone on any stream is not absolute, but depends also in many of its important aspects upon the water rights of everybody else on the same stream. Therefore, no one can know with certainty what his water right is on any stream unless all the water rights on that stream have been adjudicated with reference to each other.

"The foregoing show that a proper system in this state must provide for three things:

1.—Adjudication or establishment of the water rights on every stream.

2.—The distribution of the water by water masters in accordance with the adjudication.

3.—The granting and adjudication of new water rights wherever a surplus of water is available.

"The proposed amendment to the constitution takes care of these three points.

ENGINEERING FEATURES.
"The adjudication of water rights and the distribution of water in accordance therewith and the granting of new rights to appropriate water are matters which under the present state law of California involve more largely engineering than law; yet both are heavily involved. Therefore, the proposed water court should be composed of persons from both professions. The proposed amendment to the constitution so provides.

"In order to give to the court as far as possible the advantages among its members of local knowledge of the varying conditions throughout the state, the proposed amendment endeavors to divide the state into districts on a reasonable basis and provides for representation of these districts on the court.

"It is important, first, that the policies of the court shall be harmonious and continuous and, second, that members of the court shall be free to act without political considerations and, third, that the benefit of their knowledge and experience, which can only be acquired over a period of years, shall not be lost by a frequent change of personnel. Therefore, the proposed amendment provides for life tenure of office for the members of the court."

Berkeleyan Out For 1925 Legislature
BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Although the next Legislative election is two years away, James H. Todd, Berkeley, civic worker and engineer, today announced his candidacy for the assembly in the 41st district. His decision to run for office follows three weeks spent in Sacramento studying the activities of the present Legislature.

"Nothing like getting on the job early," declares Todd. "In the two years between now and election I have a chance to meet personally every voter in my district."

NEW OWNERS TO IMPROVE T. & D.

By E. VAN LIER RIBBINK.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Orders for the renovation of several California theaters and for $250,000 worth of organs for the houses, were issued today, marking the completion of a deal by which Sol Lesser and his associates in the West Coast Theaters, Inc., take over the Turner & Dahken chain of twenty-four theaters in this state.

Lesser, A. L. Gore and Adolph Ransick arrived here yesterday to close the deal. Lesser denied reports that the $200,000 invested in the West Coast Theaters, Inc., by Joseph Schenck, heavy stockholder in the Metro Pictures corporation, means an amalgamation of the California houses and the vast chain of the Los Angeles east by Marcus Lowe, president of the Metro.

"It was purely an investment on the part of Schenck and does not mean that Lowe and the West Coast Theaters, Inc., have merged," he stated.

Reports have been current for the past couple of weeks of a tremendous realignment of interests throughout the motion picture world and trade publications have interpreted it as an indication of impending war between two big picture companies.

Bills Would Wipe Out State Boards
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 30.—(By International News Service.)—The session of the Assembly today was devoted to the introduction of bills, upwards of a hundred new measures were introduced during the morning. No other legislative business was transacted.

Besides a number of bills by Assemblyman Bromley proposing further consolidation of a number of state departments, Assemblyman Clarence Morris presented one to abolish the state immigration and housing commission and another to abolish the Sonoma industrial farm for delinquent women.

For more than a year the city library building located at Fourth and Nevin has been overcrowded. Some time ago the library board secured a lot to the south of the present property and it was planned to extend the library to the south, providing for almost double the present stack space.

HELP REQUIRED TO ASSIST 'MY DOG DAY' PARADES

March Will Start at 10:30
A. M. Saturday and End
With Contests.

Here are the rules and conditions governing the "My Dog" Day Parade to be held on "My Dog" Day, Saturday, February 3. The parade commences at 10:30 a. m. sharp, on Saturday, February 3. The paraders will assemble at the corner of Tenth and Franklin streets. After a short parade through the principal streets the judging of contests will take place at the Auditorium arena.

These contests will include parking contests, truck contests, demonstrations of faithfulness, obedience, etc.

There will be $25 in cash prizes to winners. The winners will appear on the stage at the T. & D. theater Saturday night, February 3, at 9 o'clock for final contests. Boys and girls of 17 or under are invited to send in their entry blanks for the parade, to the "My Dog" Day Editor, The TRIBUNE, Oakland, California. Send in your blanks promptly.

Movies of the parade will be taken and shown at the T. and D. theater Saturday night, February 3.

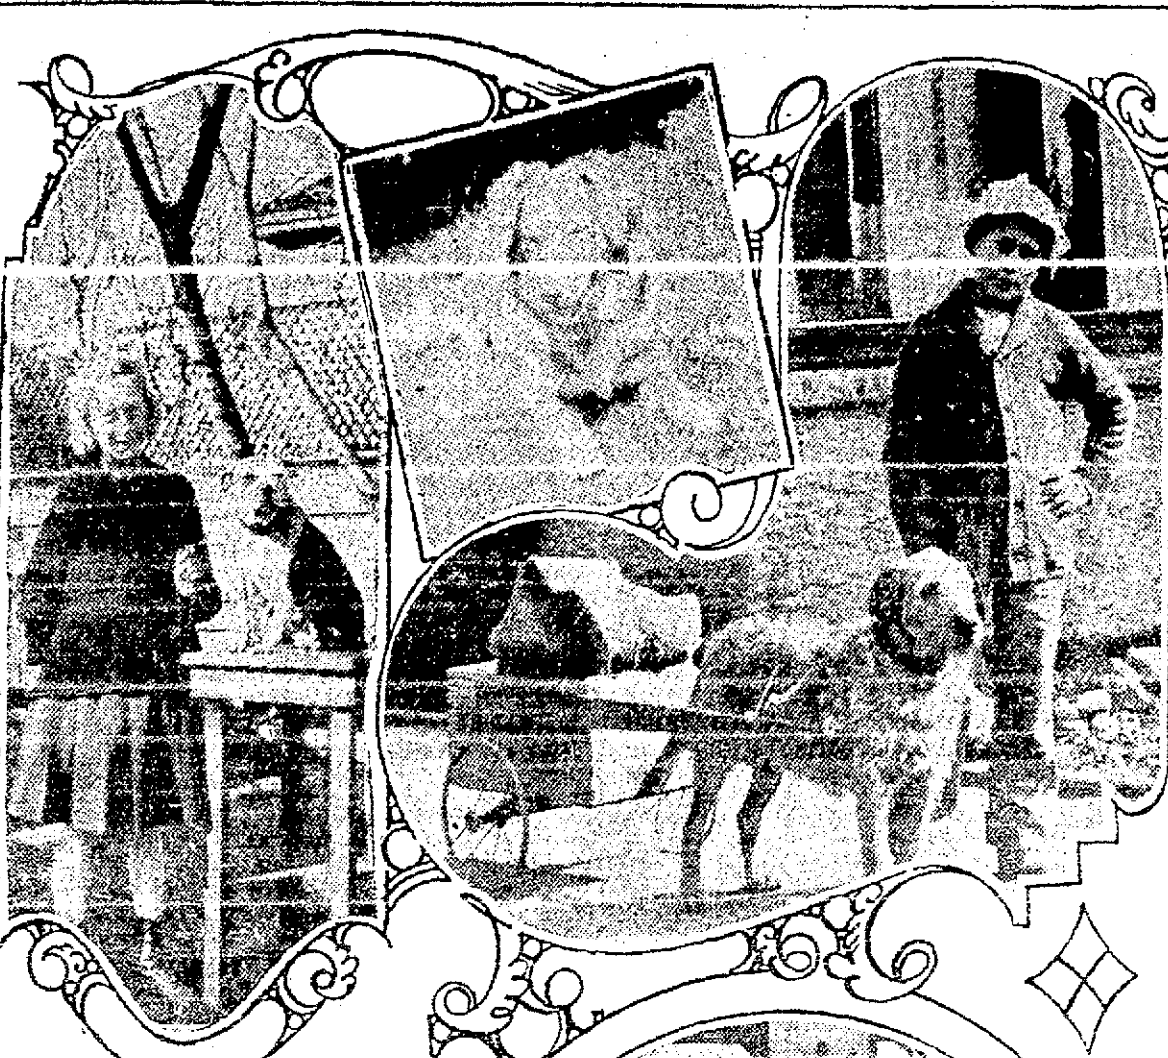

There will be a parade sign contest, also. A cash prize of $10 will be given for the most original sign in the parade. The sign must have "TRIBUNE 'My Dog' Day" some place on it.

There is one important rule in the parade. You must have your dog on a rope or a chain. If your dog likes to pull a cart you can have him parade hitched to the cart instead of leading him. If you prefer, but he must have a leash on him.

An essay contest also will be held. A prize of $10 will be given to the boy or girl of 17 or under who contributes the best essay on the subject "Why My Dog is the Best Pal." The essay must not be longer than 250 words. The essay contest will close on Saturday, February 10, one week after "My Dog" Day, in order to give the dog lovers time to express themselves well on their favorite topic.

Tomorrow we will have an announcement about a special prize that will be sure to please every lover of dogs.

"My Dog" Day Parade Regulations Announced

Man Fined $250 On Liquor Charge

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—Tom Powers, proprietor of a cigar store at 1512 Macdonald avenue, pleaded guilty to the charge of having liquor illegally in his possession late yesterday afternoon and was fined $250 by Judge C. A. Odell. In addition he was sentenced to six months in the county jail, commitment withheld. Powers was arrested yesterday.

FILMS DECLARED BIG MORAL FORCE IN COMMUNITY

"What About Movie Industry?" Is Discussed at Kiwanis Luncheon.

"What About the Movie Industry?" was the subject of a forum discussion by the Kiwanis at their luncheon yesterday at the Hotel Oakland.

Albert King declared that the industry has been the subject of the most stupid and senseless attack ever suffered by any industry. It has been "blamed" more unfairly than any other activity. Every fall from grace by anyone most remotely connected with Hollywood has been made capital of. There is no more evil and wrong in the movie business than in any other line of work. Prison statistics show that there are more bankers and preachers in jail than there are actors.

"It is the fifth largest industry, a grand and glorious one. During the war it was classed by the government as an essential industry on the ground that the people had to be entertained for them to do their best work," said King.

FORCE IN EDUCATION.
Erna Decoto, district attorney, asserted that "the movies were the greatest force in education today when they were rightly handled, and they are being rightly handled," he said.

"Six plays have been the consideration of the movies for the past 17 years, but they are going back to the good, old-fashioned pictures again, and the good, old-fashioned way is the best way, after all."

"The American public is a sane one, and in the long run can be depended upon to swing back to the good and determine for itself just what it wants."

"Candor is the basis on which the movies will prevail. The showing of crime scenes on the screen induces crime, but I am glad to see that this element is disappearing from the pictures. Producers have seen the evil of this practice, and have desisted from its use in the pictures."

"Movies are a great moral force in the community. Statistics show that with the first coming of the pictures the business of cafes and saloons fell off about 20 per cent, and police officials are of one opinion that if there were no movies crime and disorder would prevail on a much larger scale than at the present time."

DISPENSE REAL LESSONS.
W. A. Wann echoed the sentiments of Decoto, and declared that

RICHMOND

Parent-Teachers To Give 'Movie' Tonight

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—The movie show being put on tonight by the Washington Parent-Teachers Association in Washington auditorium will start promptly at 7:15 in order to be over with at an early hour. The principal feature of the show will be "Bab the Fixer," a dramatization of Mary Roberts Rinehart's famous story of the same name. There will also be a comedy and views of the Yosemite Valley.

Teacher Students Week-End Guests

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—The Misses Henrietta Brown of San Leandro, Eulalia Goodwin of Berkeley and Edna Long of Tamalpais, were the week-end guests of Miss Evelyn Renwick at her home, 1225 Nevin avenue. The young women attend the San Francisco Teachers' College. Mrs. O'Connor and two children of San Francisco are also guests of the Renwicks.

Crossing Work to Be Started Soon

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—Work on the improvement of the railroad crossing over the tracks of the Southern Pacific at Cutting Boulevard will start as soon as the railroad company can get a gang of men moved to the spot from another section. City Manager McVittie reported to the city council last night.

AUTOIST HELD ON REVOLVER CHARGE

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—Leon Mesterlet was arrested by the Richmond police last evening on complaint of autoists who passed him on the road near the San Rafael ferry. He is alleged to have brandished a revolver as autoists passed his stalled car on the road at Point Richmond. He was jailed on the charge of exhibiting a pistol in a threatening manner and will be arraigned today.

ATHLETIC CLUB OPENS.

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—Members of the Point Richmond Athletic Club are fast putting their new club rooms on top of Tunnel avenue in order. During the past week the boys but in a heating apparatus and placed pictures and pennants on the wall. The first business meeting of the club in the new quarters was held last night. The boys discussed the basketball prospects and plan an intensive period of practice at the Washington school courts during the next few weeks.

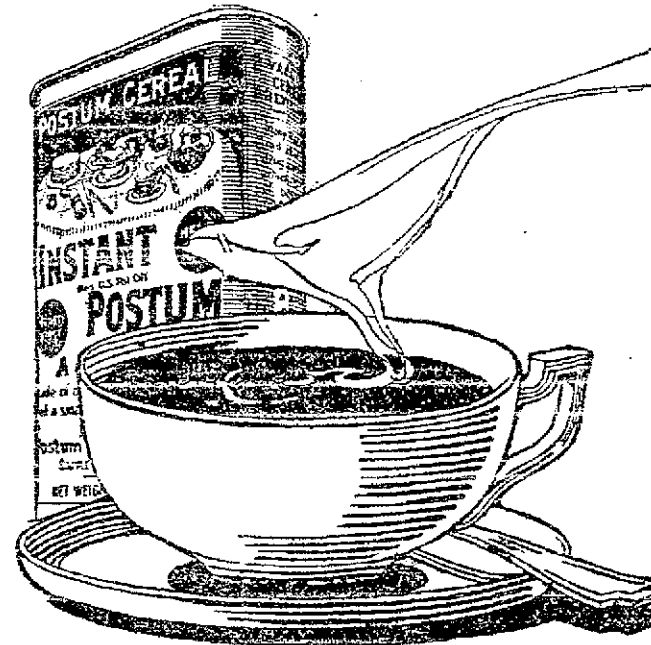

What does the cup supply for you?

Many people find harm to health in the seeming friendliness of coffee and tea. They first notice the unfriendly side of their table drink in sleeplessness and nerve-irritation—signs that health is being disturbed by the drug, caffeine, which these beverages contain.

It pays to face the facts when health is involved. It's a good plan to look for the cause of restless nights and nerve-fagged days.

Postum is a safe and satisfying mealtime drink for everybody. It meets every demand of taste, and it contains nothing which can disturb health. The children may safely share it with you—as many cups as desired, without risk of disagreeable after-effects.

There's charm without harm in Postum—the famous cereal beverage.

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) prepared instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared; made by boiling fully 20 minutes.

A FEELING OF SECURITY

You naturally feel secure when you know that the medicine you are about to take is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit-producing drugs.

Such a medicine is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

The same standard of purity, strength and excellence is maintained in every bottle of Swamp-Root.

It is scientifically compounded from vegetable herbs.

It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses.

It is not recommended for everything.

It is nature's great helper in relieving and removing kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

A sworn statement of purity is with every bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

If you need a medicine, you should have the best. On sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to try this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., P.O. Box 589, New York, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper advertisement.

All Souls' Church Will Be Enlarged

BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Owing to the overcrowding and the stamping of the activities of the All Souls' Episcopal church, Cedar and Spruce streets, it has been decided by the board of elders to build a new church which will form a connecting link with the old church.

The old church will be converted into a Sunday school and parish house. It will contain also a central auditorium, special class rooms and other rooms for activities such as the Boy Scouts, mid-week Bible classes, vicar's study, and auxiliary meeting rooms.

The funds have been raised, and Walter J. Ratcliff, architect, is drawing up the plans for the changes, and the construction of the new church.

In the new church there will be a community cloister. It will be surmounted by an imposing tower.

STREETS ORDERED IMPROVED AND 2 LICENSES ENDED

Soft Drink Permits Cancelled Are Those of Steve Garbutt and C. Cronin.

The City Council this morning revoked two more soft drink licenses and ordered the improvement of several streets, including Tompkins street, Vale avenue, Bay street, and Forty-eighth avenue from East Twelfth to East Fourteenth, East Seventeenth from Thirty-fourth to Thirty-fifth avenues, and the widening of Prospect avenue.

The soft drink licenses cancelled were those of Steve Garbutt at 1403 Thirty-fourth street, and C. Cronin at 480 Tenth street.

The council adopted a resolution forbidding all parking on the south side of East Twelfth street, between Twenty-third avenue and Twenty-third avenue place.

The board of education asked that certain lands be bought alongside Cleveland school before the property's value rises. The matter was referred to the city attorney.

The report of the municipal woodyard for December shows that 4912 meals and 4719 lodgings were given during the month to 1074 different men.

Age No Bar to This Athlete

Nobody is too young to enjoy the invigorating sport of skiing in Switzerland, where this youngster was snapped starting off like a veteran.

MEN ORGANIZE CLUB.

LODI, Jan. 30.—At a meeting of 298 men at a supper in the social hall of the M. E. church, called by Rev. H. E. Beck, pastor, a men's club was organized with the following officers: R. H. DeViney, president; W. S. Clark, vice-president; L. P. Woodward, secretary; R. J. Crow, treasurer.

In 1919, according to the most recent available figures, American women spent $75,000,000 for cosmetics.

WOMAN DINNER OF MERCED DIES

MERCED, Jan. 30.—Mrs. Louise Bacigalupi, 74, pioneer resident of Coulterville and Merced, died of heart failure here. She was the widow of Louis Bacigalupi and is survived by four sons and three daughters, Louis, George, Frank and Gus Bacigalupi, and Mrs. Mary Murphy, Mrs. Cora Key and Mrs. Lillie Kingery. All reside in Merced except Mrs. Murphy who is a resident of Berkeley. The funeral will probably be held Wednesday.

Keyes Man Candidate For Turlock Director

TURLOCK, Jan. 30.—A petition containing 42 names has been filed with Mrs. Anna Sorenson, secretary of the Turlock Irrigation District, nominating C. L. Jessup, of Keyes, as a candidate for a director from division No. 2. Jessup will oppose F. W. Moffet, incumbent, at the election to be held February 7 for three directors and an assessor-collector for the Turlock district.

PLANT INSPECTED.

MARTINEZ, Jan. 30.—G. L. Jones, now president of the Shell Oil Company of California, and H. R. Gallagher, vice-president, were here from San Francisco Saturday and made an inspection of the local refinery and conferred with refinery officials. Jones' trip was for the purpose of informing himself of Shell holdings.

Family Wait for Revival of Man 'Dead' for Week

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 30.—The body of George W. Stevenson is still in a local undertaking establishment with the family of him in the belief that he will revive from a state of suspended animation into which they contend he has passed.

One week ago today the body passed into its present state. The corner said this evening that he would not take any further action in the case until the family admitted Stevenson was dead, when an autopsy will be held. Local physicians declare the body should have reached an advanced state of decomposition by this time, but friends and members of the family maintain their vigil in the closely guarded room.

Reporters have been denied admission to view the body, the family contending that outside interference will hamper the concentration of minds, which they say will revive the boy.

An effort will be made today to have the county health officer examine the body.

ENGINEER DIES ON FAST TRAIN

SAN BERNARDINO, Jan. 30. John M. Henderson, Calton Pacific engineer, was found dead late last night under a "tree" in "Lion Pass," after a fireman, B. A. Stevens, had found him missing and stopped Union Pacific passenger train No. 72, en route to Salt Lake City from Los Angeles. The engineer died when he crawled out on the running board of the locomotive in an attempt to locate a geological trouble at had developed. Whether the engineer's head was struck by a bridge timber, as he leaned out to look at the driving wheels below him, or whether he was stricken with heart trouble, has not been determined.

Preceding the opening there was street parade which included the bands, drill teams and patrols of the various branches of the Scouts in the Eastbay district.

The funds raised will go toward the Scouts' district fund.

A different program of entertainment is offered each evening. The program for tonight calls for Raymond & Raymond, trapeze artists; Thompson, a contortionist; Metz & Metz, acrobatic clowns; Draxton's Animal Circus; the Kay Sisters, singing and dancing; Edna Corey, a contortionist; Evelyn Caravara, interpretive dances; Joe Lehnhardt, dancer, known as "Rudolph Valentino's Double."

DYNAMITE VICTIMS BURIED.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 30.—Funeral services were held yesterday for Martin Foss, Lawrence Hayworth and Robert Lincoln, three boys who were killed when a charge of dynamite exploded near their camp in the woods they were on a hiking trip. The

COLD KILLED ON TOUCH KILLED ON POWER PROJECT

FRESNO, Jan. 30.—Four miners employed by the Southern California Edison company on its power project at Big Creek were here were killed Saturday when they drilled into a "missed" hole, according to word received here by the coroner. Heavy storms in the mountains which broke down telephone communications were given as the reason for the delay in notifying him of the accident.

One of the men, Dan Keigo, was killed instantly, while the other three, C. J. Epper, William Baldwin and John Eske, died at the company hospital.

Shears Defy Whiskers in Multiplied U. C. Spectacle of 'Samson and Delilah'

'FUTURE CHIEFS' ANSWER WAR CRY OF HOODED CO-EDS

Five Leaders of U. C. Women's Activities Deny Membership in Scissor Society.

BERKELEY, Jan. 29.—War is on!

The University of California campus is the scene of hostilities. On the one side are twenty-five bewhiskered men students, banded together in the Samson club to withstand the disturbing wills of co-eds.

On the other a slightly larger battle array—36 hooded and crowned college women who have christened themselves the "Delilahs" and whose battle cry, echoing through college halls is this: "They shall be shorn."

Whiskers and a desire to become members of the "Samson" club, instead of being "Samson" themselves, form the goal of the Delilahs as set forth by Lin Chaplin, freshman student organizer.

The co-eds of the Delilah organization have constructed a Samson member in effigy and around this in laboratory apron and with paper sacks over their heads they dance and chant their battle songs.

In one objective the two clubs agree. Each has vowed that the entire membership of the "Samsons" and "Delilahs" will be made known to the world.

"SHOW FACES" IS CRY.

"If they won't come out from behind their whiskers like men, we'll show 'em what we can do," said the Delilahs.

"Let them be real women and wear their faces and let those who 'refuse' to do so, 'show faces'!"

Today the "Samsons" launched a "surprise attack" on the enemy by announcing that they had secured the names of five Delilahs, and that they were according to the Delilahs.

Clara Jones, editor of the "Delilahs," said that the names of the Delilahs were secured by the "Samsons" and that they were according to the Delilahs.

And so the battle is on. Each day at lunch the co-ed Delilahs and the Samsons meet and fight their strategic moves.

Very night at dinner the Samsons launch a new offensive.

SPILDS TO VICTORS.

Today the Samsons won along the spoils. Twenty-two men who were the Delilahs if they are vanquished in the skirmish.

Public Utilities

Bill Protest Urged

ALAMEDA, Jan. 29.—After receiving the instructions of the Alameda city council, William J. Locke, city attorney, is framing a resolution to be sent to the representatives from his district in the State Legislature to oppose a bill which would force all public utilities to sell to consumers at cost.

The passage of the bill as passed out by the city attorney would mean a loss of annual revenue to the city of Alameda from its public utilities.

prohibiting a profitable profit to be made by a municipality from a public utility.

The revenue from the Alameda plant is used each year for the maintenance of municipal functions. Locke declares, and the consumers are also provided with an unusually low electric light rate.

WALNUT CREEK MASONIC LODGE SEATS OFFICERS

WALNUT CREEK, Jan. 29.—In-pressing ceremonies were held Saturday night at the Masonic temple at which time the officers for the ensuing year of Alameda Lodge No. 122, F. & A. M., were installed.

First Master Harry Spencer was the installing officer assisted by Harry Pryor, junior past master. Invitation had been extended to the near-by lodges and representatives from Alameda, San Ramon, Danville, Lafayette and Concord were in attendance.

The officers installed for the year 1923 were: Master, Harry Spencer; senior warden, Harry Spencer; junior warden, Harry Spencer; treasurer, Harry Spencer; secretary, Harry Spencer; and other officers.

And so the battle is on. Each day at lunch the co-ed Delilahs and the Samsons meet and fight their strategic moves.

POSSE CAPTURES SUSPECT WANTED FOR AUTOHOLDUP

George Hayes, Named by Pair Caught and Convicted, Surrounded in House.

The third of three alleged automobile bandits who on September 29, 1922, at the point of revolvers held up and robbed John F. Roberts, room 301 Commercial Building, and Miss Catherine Doel, 3529 Custer street, at Seminary avenue and Foothill boulevard and robbed Roberts of $23 and a gold watch, was captured today at the home of his aunt, 1423 Ninetieth avenue, by a posse of police from the eastern station led by Lieutenant William Woods.

The suspect is George Hayes, 22, whose home is in Boulder Creek, Santa Cruz county, and who was named as a participant in the robbery by Angelo Morarotti, who was captured by Patrolman George Danford on the night of the robbery.

After holding up Miss Doel and her escort the automobile bandits took away the key to the spark switch and proceeded down East Fourteenth street toward the city.

Roberts had another key in his vest coat pocket and followed the robbers. He observed that at Sixty-ninth avenue two of the men got out of the machine and entered a building near that corner. The other man continued to drive towards town.

Following a short chase behind Roberts at Sixty-ninth avenue, picked up Patrolman Danford and a posse of police from the eastern station led by Lieutenant William Woods.

FFTE SIGNALIZES ELECTION VICTORY AT CENTERVILLE

Dance, Entertainment, Bonfires Celebrate Voting of School and Sewer Bonds.

CENTERVILLE, Jan. 29.—Every section of Washington Township was represented at the victory band dance and entertainment held here last Saturday night in celebration of voting of bonds to give Centerville the new township high school to be built at a cost of $150,000 and a sewer system costing $75,000. For the last eight years the people of Centerville, with F. C. Hawes as their leader, have battled for the new school and sewer system. The dance was held at the Centerville packing house and more than 400 attended. Bonfires in the streets were visible for miles.

Hawes, postmaster of Centerville and also secretary of Washington Township No. 105, N. S. C. W. of Centerville, was chairman of the evening. He delivered the opening address and spoke on the progress of Centerville. "Centerville has advanced more in the last five years than it did in the previous twenty," said Hawes. George A. Cobb, president of the sanitary board, A. T. Biddle, secretary of the high school district, and M. Moffet, representative of the Centerville Packing Company at Centerville, were among the other speakers.

Hawes says he expects the new sewer system to be completed within the next eight months. An architect for the drawing of the plans for the new high school will be appointed by the high school board of trustees in the near future.

Many members of Oakland Park, N. S. C. W. of Oakland, were present at the dance. They will also come here to participate in the laying of the cornerstone for the new high school.

SHIRLEY WORK ON U. C. STADIUM STIRS PROTEST

Contractors Declare No State Law Is Violated and Men Not Compelled to Labor.

BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Whether or not the memorial stadium of the University of California is to be built on Sunday as well as on other days of the week is the moot question which Comptroller Robert Sprout was called upon to decide today following a formal protest registered with college authorities by Frank McDonough, president of the state building trades council of San Francisco.

the attention of the occupation officials.

The train on which the general and the minister were passengers was halted in time to avert striking an obstruction placed on the tracks. General Weygand and Letourneau proceeded to Dusseldorf by automobile.

German trainmen at Dueren asserted that the obstruction was part of a wrecked car which was smashed up in a rear-end collision yesterday morning.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The policy to be pursued in the Ruhr was discussed here today by high officials of France and Belgium. General Weygand, Marshal Foch's chief of staff; Letourneau, minister of public works, and M. Herbet, the French ambassador, were Franco's representatives. The Belgian representatives were Premier Theunis, Foreign Minister Jaspar and M. Devez, the minister of national defense.

The conference which lasted two hours, is said to have resulted in a thorough accord on the measures to be taken. The Belgian government is declared to have held the opinion that these measures should be on a larger scale.

Government's Fight Backed by Workers

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Central News from Berlin asserts that 200 delegates of the miners, metal workers, engineers and stokers met today in conference at Bochum and passed a resolution to support the government in its fight against the French attempt to isolate the Ruhr, but warned the government against the adoption of violent methods.

Travel in Germany Is Not Guaranteed

HOLDUP VICTIM HANDS JOLT TO BUSINESS MAN

"If they ever get me on a jury I won't listen to any circumstantial evidence," said a prominent Berkeley business man today.

The other day this letter came through the mails. My wife opened it. Say, she just sat down and had a good think right away. Thank Heaven I was at home that night and did not have to offer any alibi.

The letter in question was from Sheriff Frank Barnett asking for information on jewelry which may have been lost in the Peralta Cafe robbery recently.

Seeking an explanation, the business man who for obvious reasons must remain nameless, stated he had ascertained that some one at the Peralta on the night of the robbery, January 18, had given his name, with different initials and an address on Alameda avenue, Oakland.

The postoffice, not being able to locate the name, tried The Alameda, Berkeley, and the letter was delivered to his home.

WOMAN SICK TWO YEARS

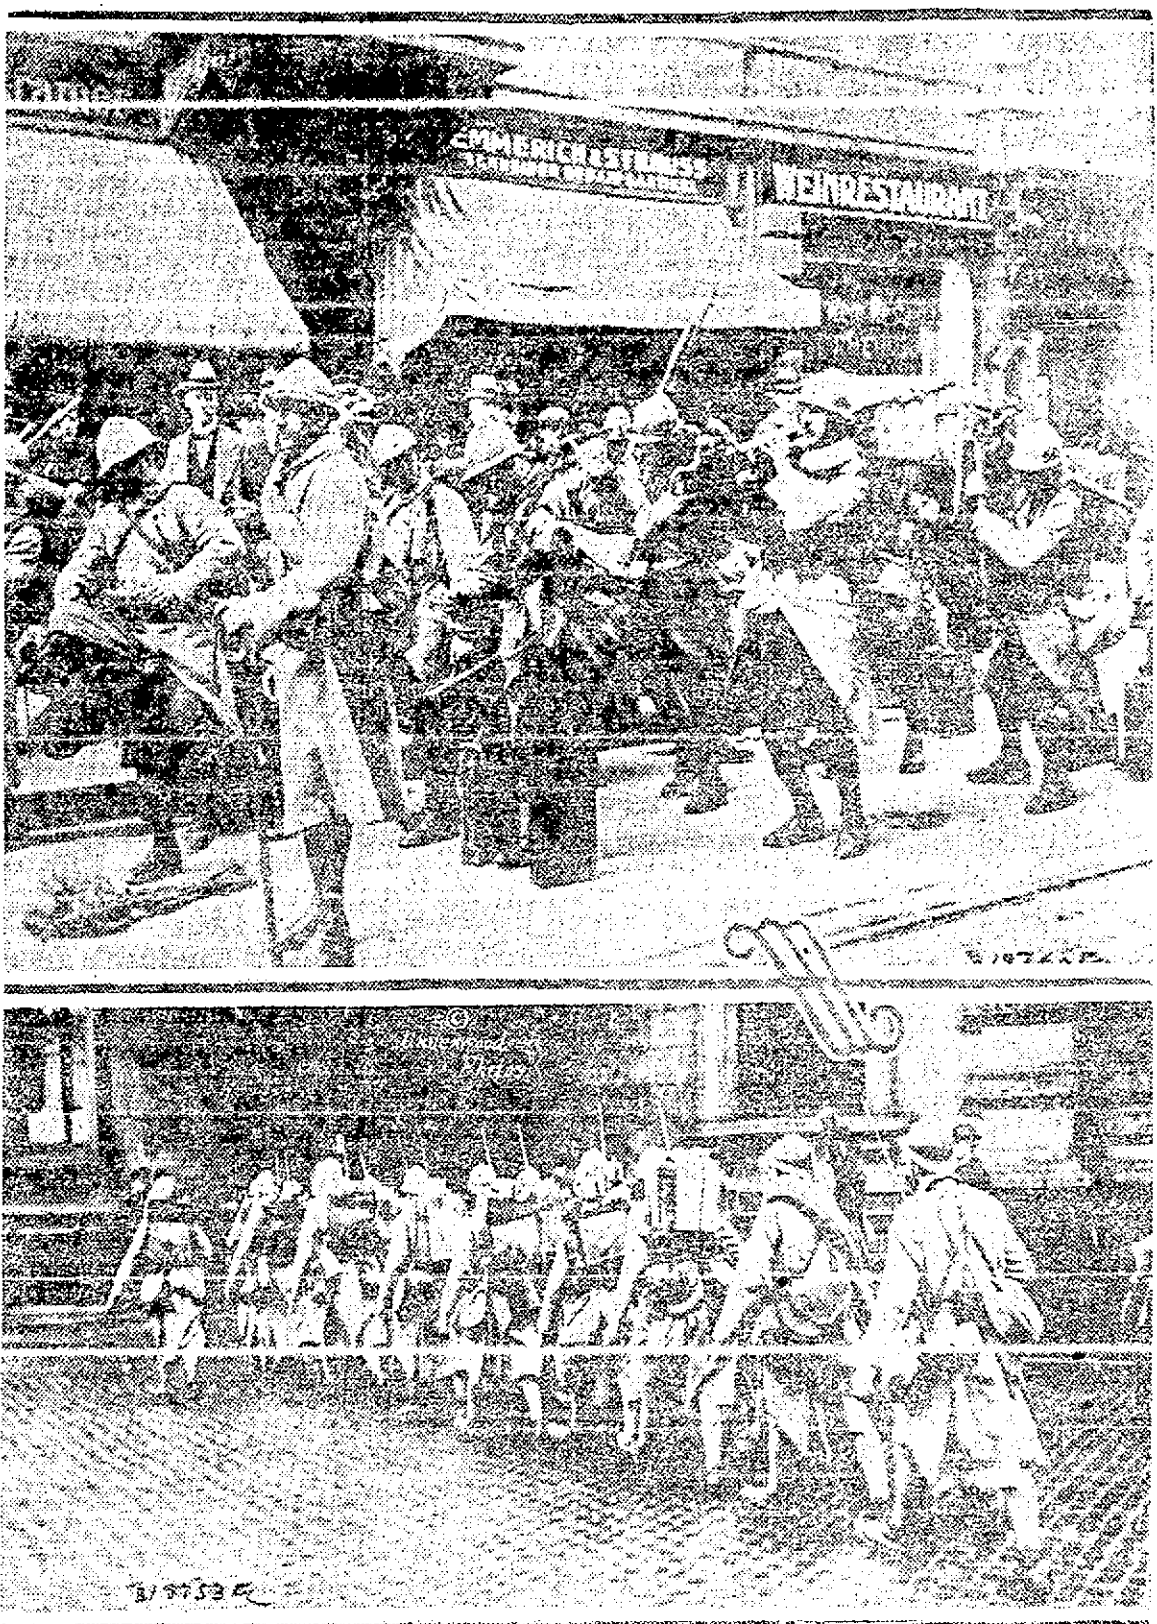

Caused by Troubles Women Often
Have—Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Medina, New York.—"I had a great deal of trouble such as women often have, and this affected my nerves. For over two years I suffered this way, then I read in the Buffalo Times about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and have taken it with very good results. I am very much better and feel justified in praising the Vegetable Compound to my friends and neighbors who suffer from anything of the kind."—Mrs. Wm. H. Atkins, 311 Erin Road, Medina, N. Y.

Feels Like Girl Sixteen
Rochester, N. Y.—"After my twin girls were born I was all run-down. I felt like a girl sixteen years old. I saw your advertisement in the paper and bought Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The first bottle helped me and I kept on taking it. I only weighed ninety pounds when I began taking it, and I have gained in weight and feel like a girl of sixteen. I never can say enough for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. NELLIE DORSEY, 26 Skuse Park, Rochester, N. Y.

BE DIFFERENT, BE DEFINITE, IS ADVISE TO CITY

Charles C. Wilson, publisher and representative of the California Real Estate Board, when he addressed the Electric Club at the Hotel Oakland yesterday, reviewed the need for development of the East Bay by a definite unified plan, which would take account of the individual needs of each community but which would call for common action for the betterment of the East Bay.

"The problems of Oakland," he said, "were first a definite city plan involving the transportation problem, the development of the waterfront and an adequate supply of fresh water; second, seek to be different and study its own resources and preserve its individuality; third, to connect Oakland into the summer tourist center.

"Oakland is the terminal of the transcontinental railroads, the converging point of the automobile highways which pour in a steady flood of tourists. It is in close touch with the main scenic points of the state but it needs more tourist hotels and auto camps de luxe in its nearby hills to hold these people."

Wilson advocated the planting of a new city of good architecture in the home building. San Jose, the center for prunes and Fresno the center for raisins but it is within the reach of Oakland to become the summer tourist center. It has the freshness of climate comparable to the high Sierras. Within easy reach of the great natural parks and other scenic points of interest it affords the ideal stopping place to the tourist while he makes his plans for tours of the points of interest. Within the confines of the city it has Lake Merritt, one of the best beauty spots that could be found in any city. The surrounding hills provide the best available automobile camps if only they were established on the plan followed in eastern centers where every comfort and convenience is provided for the tourist.

BE DIFFERENT.

Wilson stated that Oakland had all of the factors that make for national community development, wealth, health, education, social life and recreation, beauty and rest. He said that Oakland had become known as a health center through the recent Health and Safety Exposition which was held at the Municipal Auditorium under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and he lauded the work of this body and its personnel.

He advised the city of Oakland to seek to be different from other cities rather than strive to be like them which he said has been the tendency here.

We'll Break German Will, French Leader Declares

LONDON, Jan. 30.—(By International News Service.)—"We will break the German will and we intend to impose our own will upon them!" General de Goutte, commander of the Franco-Belgian army of occupation in the Rhine, was quoted as saying in a despatch from Dusseldorf to the Evening News today. Continuing, he said:

"The French army is not like the Prussian army, which was one of bloodthirsty murderers. But let there be no misjudgment. Moderation is not weakness. They are mistaken who suppose that our patience has no limit. We are going to do our work and have our way."

AFTER THE PROFITERS.

DUSSELDORF, Jan. 30.—(By the United Press.)—The French intend to stay in the Ruhr until German profiteers have given up a portion of their immense war profits for reconstruction of devastated France.

Graft Charges Lose Anti-Wets Rockefeller Aid

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The financial support of John D. Rockefeller Sr. and Jr. has been withdrawn from the Anti-saloon league of New York state, it was learned yesterday after the appearance of Raymond D. Fosdick, representative of the Rockefeller family, at the district attorney's inquiry into the financial affairs of William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the league.

Both of the Rockefellers ceased contributing to the league several months ago, it was asserted, after their representatives were informed that league officials were splitting commissions on contributions.

Fosdick and Mrs. Maudie O'Connell, assistant to Anderson, were the only two persons questioned yesterday by Assistant District Attorney Pecora. The questioning of the superintendent scheduled was postponed at his request until Wednesday.

"I granted the extension," said Pecora, "only after an urgent appeal and on Anderson's promise to bring with him on Wednesday all the books of the league that will be necessary for the inquiry."

Woman Faces Bigamy Charge at Martinez

MARTINEZ, Jan. 30.—Complaint charging 28-year-old Irene Johnson-Jones-Lopez-Goranson with bigamy was sworn out today by Sheriff R. E. Veale and this afternoon Deputy Sheriff Ralph Harrison went to Berkeley to bring the woman to the county jail here to await hearing on the charge. Mrs. Goranson, whom the authorities allege wedded her first husband in Berkeley, is maintaining a divorce from her first husband, was arrested in Berkeley following complaint to officers by John Lopez-Goranson, her alleged husband No. 2. Mrs. Goranson took her third matrimonial step here January 23 when she wedded Alfred Goranson, Berkeley teamster.

The bigamy complaint was sworn out before Justice Frank Glass, who tied Mrs. Goranson's third nuptial knot.

GERMAN RABBIT BY SPEAKER AT KIWANIS LUNCH

Country Has Gone to Dogs.
Morally, Industrially,
Says Guy Wolfe.

Characterizing Germany as a willful defaulter in her debts to the Allies and advocating the creation of a commission of bankers and business men, representing all the Allied nations, but made up mostly of responsible American business men and bankers, to take control of Germany and its tangible assets, one of the means of solving the European tangle was the suggestion of Guy Wolfe, chamber of commerce official, when he addressed the Kiwanis Club on "The Economic Aspects of the European Situation" at luncheon at the Hotel Oakland yesterday.

"One of the greatest psychological surprises of the post-war period," he said, "has been the absolute demoralizing of Germany. The country has come to the dogmatically, industrially, socially and politically. The ambition of the German people has died a violent death. National pride is gone. The business men have none about the deliberate demoralization of the country and the government has made no effort to prevent it, although it could if it wished to. It is apparent that their intention is to so weaken the country that there will be no tangible assets to seize, honesty and common decency have disappeared in Germany and she is willfully defaulting in her obligations to the Allies."

"As long as affairs in Europe are no consideration of ours just so long will things continue to drift from bad to worse until Germany will be in the condition of Russia and her money will be worthless paper."

Referring to his suggestion for an international commission to stabilize the mark Wolfe said:

"The Germans would have to pledge their tangible assets to this commission and in return we would create in the country, then, with a five years' moratorium, to which France has already consented if the above conditions were observed, Germany could do about the winter out of her debt to France, Belgium and other debtors."

Discussing the responsibility of the United States as a creditor nation, he said:

"If all the gold in the world today was placed in one pile on a dock in Liverpool for shipment to this country it could not wipe out the British debt to us. The only solution of the problem is that the United States must consent to accept goods and services in kind for the money due her."

"If we do not make Europe's affairs our concern then one-fourth of the American people will be ruined."

FRANCE AIMS TO RUIN US, STATES GEN. LUDENDORFF

Former Leader Laments Departure of Americans; He Wears Monocle Now.

By CARL D. GROAT.
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
MUNICH, Jan. 30.—"France wants to get rid of Germany."

General Ludendorff, one of Germany's two most famous military leaders during the world war, thus expressed his view of the Ruhr occupation in an interview with the United Press at his villa overlooking the Munich valley today. The general attacked French militarism and accused the invaders of wanting to rid the country of Clemenceau's twenty million Germans too many.

"For 200 years the French have sought to ruin Germany," Ludendorff said. "France with a population not surpassing thirty millions, first dispersed some of our millions in giving Dantzig to Poland. Now she is proceeding herself to absorb some millions and to get rid of others by letting part of the population starve."

The general charged France with a tendency to maintain her grasp on the Ruhr as long as practicable, permanently if possible.

"SORRY AMERICANS GONE." "I am sorry the American troops have been withdrawn from the Rhine, although I feel it was meant as a protest against France. But it only helped and pleased them. They now have a more solid front with nobody to hinder them. They are pouring troops through the Coblenz area."

Leaving the general in his peaceful attitude with the Germans on the second day for Munich and Mannheim reached the former city to find the head of nationalistic league organizations with a message from the French.

The nationalistic nationalist leader Hitler pays today visits to cities, urging Bavarians to rise in revolt against the Germans or to join the French.

CHICAGO FORMER BANDITS, HEREIN.—Five bandits, including a house ne. (The first real fall of snow in the city of many middle-aged inhabitants fell here today. The snow was declared to be the heaviest since February 25, 1874. For half an hour the snow came down heavily. The snow lay on the ground for a few minutes during the worst of the storm, but melted within a few minutes.

Occupation Bill Against Berlin Billion Dollars

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(By International News Service.)—The entire cost of the allied occupation of the left bank of the Rhine from armistice day to December 31, 1922, amounts to $3,500,000,000 gold marks, or $1,125,000,000 at the present rate of exchange, according to figures compiled by the German government and made public here today.

Of this amount Germany has paid 900,000,000 gold marks, or $255,000,000, according to the German government's figures.

JURY WILL TRY CASE AT NIGHT

A jury composed of business men and women which also will be the first night jury in a police court will be summoned to decide the case of Arthur Seibert, who is charged with violating the Wright act in Police Judge Terrell's court. The case has been set for 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, February 7. Seibert is the first violator of the "dry law" who has demanded a jury trial.

Justice Terrell has instructed Milton English, court officer, to select a venire of business and professional men and women of the city.

"I intend to have a jury with intelligence, one that will return a verdict of guilty if the prisoner is guilty," said Judge Terrell.

U. P. Stolen Bond Case Continued

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Federal Judge Schumann today held there was insufficient evidence to uphold a charge of receiving stolen property against John W. Worthington, former private banker, but the judge continued the case until February 21. Worthington was alleged to have been in possession of a stolen bond from the Union Pacific railroad company, at Omaha, Neb., and his counsel contended there was no evidence to show he knew the bonds had been stolen. The state then asked for and obtained a further continuance.

Autoist Will Speed Afoot For 30 Days

MANTECA, Jan. 30.—For the next 30 days Chester Suttill will walk. He pleaded guilty before Judge Douglas to a charge of speeding. "For the next thirty days you will do all your speeding on foot," the court announced, declaring the young man's license forfeited for that length of time. Suttill is the son of a prominent farmer.

Stolen love
Tempestuous love

All in this great Romance by California's Famous Novelist

From Harriet and the Piper

"ROYAL said he did not believe in the orthodox ceremony of marriage. He argued that no one could live up to his promises, and I believed him. (Miriam Street, the artist's wife, was a poet and she wrote the ceremony by which we were married. We had a big supper, and they were all there, and this poem—was beautiful. It was published in a magazine, afterwards, and called 'A Marriage for True Lovers.' It had a part for the woman to say and a part for the man, and Royal and I said those, and then it had a part for the woman's friend and the man's friend, and for all their friends. And then there was a promise that when love failed on either side, the two were free to keep the memory of the perfect love unstained by the ugly years!"

NOW RUNNING DAILY

KLX TO SEND OUT DOUBLE PROGRAM ON AIR TONIGHT

Phyllida Ashley and Carol Weston to Inaugurate Series of Concerts.

A double program of entertainment will be offered the radio public from Radio KLX, The TRIBUNE's broadcasting station, this evening between 8 and 9 o'clock.

The first of the TRUBUNE-American Theater orchestra concerts will be broadcast between 8 and 8:15 o'clock, when Phyllida Ashley, noted pianist, and Carol Weston, well-known violinist, conductors of the American Theater orchestra, will play classical selections.

This will be the first of a series of broadcasts by these popular musicians. Both have achieved fame in the world of music, and when each applied for the directorship of the American Theater orchestra at the conclusion of John Wharry Lewis contract, the management of the theater had heard such glowing reports of both that it was decided to try a novelty and make them co-directors. The result has been the building up of an orchestra that has its regular note with the theater-going public.

The last half hour of tonight's program from KLX will be by Miss Jessie M. Douglas, pianist and accompanist, and R. W. Hendrick, baritone of Berkeley.

Miss Douglas is a resident of Oakland and a recent graduate of the University of California. She is well known in local music circles and is at present devoting her time to the study of music. She is soon to play some unpublished numbers which are to be placed on sale.

Hendrick is also a University of

Instrumental Artists on KLX

MISS JESSIE M. DOUGLAS, accompanist and pianist, and R. W. Hendrick, baritone, who will supply the talent for the last half hour of the program from KLX, The TRIBUNE's radiophone station, this evening.

RAY LAW RESULTS IN CALIFORNIA TOLD IN FIGURES

Minor Crimes Decrease, But There Are More Arrests For Felonies.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The effect of prohibition enforcement in California, according to a survey by S. F. Rutter, state director, based on juvenile court statistics and testimony of probation officers, divorce court judges and welfare commissioners is "most apparent in that broad region of wretchedness and unhappiness which intervenes between private domestic happiness and public prisons" rather than "in the records of the most serious crimes."

The survey which was made public today by the information bureau of the prohibition unit, says the annual number of arrests for drunkenness in California declined from an average of 27,305 in the three years prior to prohibition to 14,485 in the three subsequent years, while juvenile court cases declined from 1599 to 1538.

Deaths from alcoholism in the two years immediately following the beginning of prohibition enforcement, it says averaged 53 a year, while in the five preceding years the average was 205.

Alcoholic insanity cases averaged 33 in the first two post-prohibition years against 72 in the three pre-prohibition years, it adds, and the increase in bank deposits in the three years succeeding prohibition as compared with the three preceding averaged 48 per cent, with the number of depositors gaining 37 per cent.

The record of felonies, including those of guilty and convictions, the survey says, shows an average of 2845 in the three years subsequent to prohibition as compared with 2750 in the five preceding years.

Inquiry into the "apparent reasons for this increase," it declares, reveals that "figures are far from depressing" since from 1917 to 1920, when "a most vigorous enforcement of the law" was being exercised and "due to the urge of patriotism and severe army discipline, the ratio of serious crimes fell far below normal," while it was "undoubtedly inevitable" that during the subsequent period of depression and unemployment, "crime record should swing back toward normal" but it "did not reach it."

Why Corns?

Just say
Blue-jay to your druggist

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in a colorless clear liquid (one drop does it!) and in thin plasters. The action is the same.

Pain Stops Instantly

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2. and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families, the world over, tell that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosen a dry, hoarse or tight cough, soothe the inflamed membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat and chest ailments.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "the cure of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. TRACY NOTES

TRACY, Jan. 30.—Harold Smith, of Salt Lake City, was given a suspended sentence of ninety days' imprisonment in the Recorder's Court by George Friedrich, Friday morning. He stood guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons and admitted to be a deserter from the U. S. S. Mississippi since December 28, 1922. He was given an hour to leave Tracy.

Jack Mantel, a partner in the company of the Southern Pacific company, was held up at the point of a revolver and relieved of $18 by two men Saturday about midnight. Mantel notified the city and railroad officers, giving the description of the two men dressed as mechanics. A search was made but no trace of the $18 found.

Contractor J. Johnson has a gang of men and teams busy grading and graveling the temporary detour along Sixth street through Tracy which has caused such notorious discomfort to motorists having to travel along this route. In the meantime the traffic is being detoured a mile south through Tracy on a very good road. On account of the recent storm the Sixth street detour became a sea of mud and many cars were stuck. Johnson's "Cat" was used to pull them out.

MAIN STREET, WASHINGTON.

Charges of "graft" like those brought by Mrs. Miles Poindeux, wife of the Senator from Washington, make for pleasant reading. They are so free of anything that is serious or disturbing.

Wives of cabinet officers go shopping. The Senator's wife says, in limousines purchased by the Government. In other words, Mrs. Cabinet Officer exercises a woman's prerogative and tells her husband she is going to use the car which the Government bought him. Doubtless, she has not been told the car must not be used except to take the cabinet officer to and from meetings. The Government simply said a cabinet officer ought to have a car and gave him one.

Then, listen to this. When Mrs. Dealy gives an "at home," she telephones to the drum major of the Marine Band, or someone, and the organization marches right up to the Dealy house and furnishes free music for all concerned. This, Mrs. Poindeux infers, is not right. There will be some who will remember that the Marine Band is not an organization of merchants and others who play in their spare hours. It is a band in every waking hour of the day and, as one of the greatest bands in the country, has to practice. Mr. Dealy is Secretary of the Navy and the Marine Band is the pride of the Navy. Suppose it practices in the Dealy back yard instead of in its own headquarters? Where is anybody the loser?

As one knows the list of charges it grows worse. Mr. Dealy took his family to the Orient on a battle-ship. The War Department furnishes good looking officers for functions given by the Secretary of War, the Botanical Gardens furnish flowers for the house of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Maybe there is cause for a show of righteous indignation in these charges but in the face of so many other things which are being said and done the world over, it is possible there is more reason for amusement and the reflection that even Washington is not without its "Main Street."

HARVARD AND THE NEGRO.

College presidents and others are fond of referring to the university population as an "aristocracy of intellect." Recent events have made it difficult for Harvard College to use the phrase with good grace.

In denying entrance to a negro student President Lowell has not made a good case for Harvard or himself. He has said in effect that Harvard stands for the highest of ideals, for democracy and for service, but there are students in the university who have not as yet the same privileges granted all other freshmen. President Lowell said, would it be to ignore race prejudice, and so a promising colored student, son of another colored student who, some years ago was graduated with honors from Harvard, is told he cannot register.

This would appear to be a lowering of ideals to meet a sentiment which President Lowell believes exists in the student body. It is a confession that Harvard does not stand on its feet for educational opportunities and that its belief in democracy is theoretical and not intended for the test.

The old Harvard College admitted men of all races and it gained more than it suffered. Now it is not only the negro who is discouraged and the school has lost one of its strongest appeals. The censor is busy in the aristocracy of intellect and he is a censor who spells aristocracy with a capital A and looks for it in the social register.

A COMPARISON.

A favorite mental exercise is that of estimating the population of California in 1920, 1910 or 1900, and the results vary with the shrewdness and the optimism of the prophet. Will 1920 see 10,000,000 or 15,000,000 as the state's population? How many persons could the state support?

A rather striking parallel has been discovered by a writer in the San Bernardino Sun. Poland and California are, approximately, of a size with the European country having, perhaps, 3000 square miles less than this state possesses. A large part of Poland is mountainous and another large part is in forest so the comparison holds out in almost every way.

The population of Poland is 28,000,000 and the country is 244,000 sq. miles. One-third of the world's potato crop, 33,000,000 tons, is grown there, and 6,000,000 acres are to be planted to that crop this spring.

The figures of Poland are proof that California may have 25,000,000 population and still be ready to receive more.

OAKLAND'S SEQUOIAS.

There is only one large city in the world which has a natural grove of sequoias almost within its limits. And that city faces the prospect of losing the distinction.

Of course, if Redwood Park is carved up into residence lots and gates, drives, homes, garages, and wire fences move into what is now a sort of sacred and majestic grove, there will still be some sequoias left on the peak. The point is, they will be privately owned trees, the trails will be closed and the open spaces in which phoebes have been held and where men and women have waved elegant in the moonlight as to the necessity for saving this forest. Will be denied the hiker, the tourist, the visitor.

Viewed abstractly, it does not seem possible that any American city when offered the chance to own a sequoia grove would prove indifferent. A majority of those who voted when the purchase was put on the ballot, favored the plan but the necessary two-thirds majority was lacking. Now there is to be another effort.

A committee will find out how much of the Redwood Park lands is needed for a park and will seek to have it appraised. Then will be started a new campaign for its purchase. Probably this will be the last campaign, the last opportunity. Those who would sell homes up there cannot be expected to wait much longer.

INCREASE OF EMPLOYMENT.

Instead of a reduction in employment midwinter brought an increase in the basic manufacturing industries of the United States. The figures for wages and for number of men employed for December, 1922, are larger than those for November.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor has issued a report based on statistics from 3,291 representative establishments in 33 manufacturing industries. This report shows the December payroll to be $9,171,295 against $8,917,717 for November, and the number of men employed to be 1,587,705 against 1,551,950.

A further idea of the extent of the quickened activity is shown by the fact that 23 of the 33 industries showed gains while 10 showed decreases and the decreases were in lines ordinarily affected by the winter season.

Partly, owing to the resumption of work after the settlement of the strike, shows the greatest increase, 29.9 per cent, agricultural implements following with an increase of 13.8 per cent, while car building, foundry and machine shops, men's clothing and shipbuilding show increased employment ranging from 4 to nearly 8 per cent.

Fertilizers show decreased employment of 11.4, and flour, brick, and chewing and smoking tobacco of from 3 to 5 per cent.

The greatest payroll increase, 25.7 per cent, is shown in the pottery industry, followed by agricultural implements, 13.4 per cent, shipbuilding, 12.2 per cent, and men's clothing and foundry and machine shops, each 9.8 per cent.

The greatest decrease in the total pay rolls in December, as compared with November, are shown in women's clothing, 9.3 per cent, fertilizers, 7.9 per cent, and flour, 5.5 per cent. These are cold figures, and dry ones, but they tell an important story. When agricultural are being made in greater quantities the movement is toward prosperity.

EXECUTIVES IN A HURRY.

Gov. Pinchot has taken office in Pennsylvania with a sound mind and intention of his desire to do away with the office of the governor. He has hung over the door of his office a sign, "The governor, walk right in." Of course, the explanation had at once to be made that members of the legislature and persons having definite appointments would be given precedence over chance visitors, but still the broad invitation stood. A people's governor must always be accessible to all the people. Nothing that he is doing or wants to do is so important as to be always available to every man, woman or child with a grievance, a request, a petition or merely a fussy desire to be seen hobnobbing with the chief executive of the State.

Mr. Pinchot is too much of a man to be accused of cheap democracy in this politeness to all and sundry to break in upon him and waste his time at their good pleasure. But he will soon find out that it really means to do serious work he will have to be protected from the mob, however good natured and well intentioned it may be. The best executive movements can not be wrought in the midst of a mass meeting.—New York Times.

LINEN

Composed by Fothergill Finch after drinking some gin concocted by himself.
I will walk into the sunrise, Laughing, laughing, laughing... I will greet the moonrise. With smiles, smiles and defiance: I will shout myself through the Cosmos until the very stars shall shake with the greatness of Me!

You ask me why? Who am I that I should shake the Universe to atoms?

I am I!
I am I!
I am I!

But you can never understand You cannot because while you may be I to yourself you can never be anything but you to Me.

I have drunk the Elixir of Life, I have quaffed the Nectar of the Gods!

Some, some, some wine In pole blue glass, A cold, cold blue that burns and burns and burns...

Let it consume me, Zeus! Let it consume me, Mars! Let it consume me, Bacchus!

O all ye Gods of Virility and Conflict and Madness, let me be consumed by the fire that burns within me!

It is a wonderful fire: it is a war-like fire; it is a divine fire! It is a fire that burns And leaves no scar!

The world is blurred... Its straight, hard edges Have lost their sharpness and their hardness.

The World is a blur of Beauty, O Beauty that is beautiful, O Beauty that is beautiful.

That is the World, and I am a part of it all— Or is it all a part of me...?

The beautiful face is looking: The beautiful face is looking up and down And around

I shall consume myself I shall consume myself to the blur of it all.

I shall lose consciousness I shall lose consciousness I shall sleep

And sleep... and sleep... (The poem breaks off abruptly at this point.)

ONE IN FIVE MILLION. Clayton Hamilton, upon his recent return to New York after two years in Los Angeles, said that while he knew nothing about moving pictures when he went out there, he soon began to learn some of the dogmas of picture-making.

For instance, Mr. Hamilton said, when a producer sets about to make a picture-play, he must consider that it is intended to appeal to the classes who attend movie theaters. That is, it must interest five million servant-girls, ten million shopgirls and so forth.

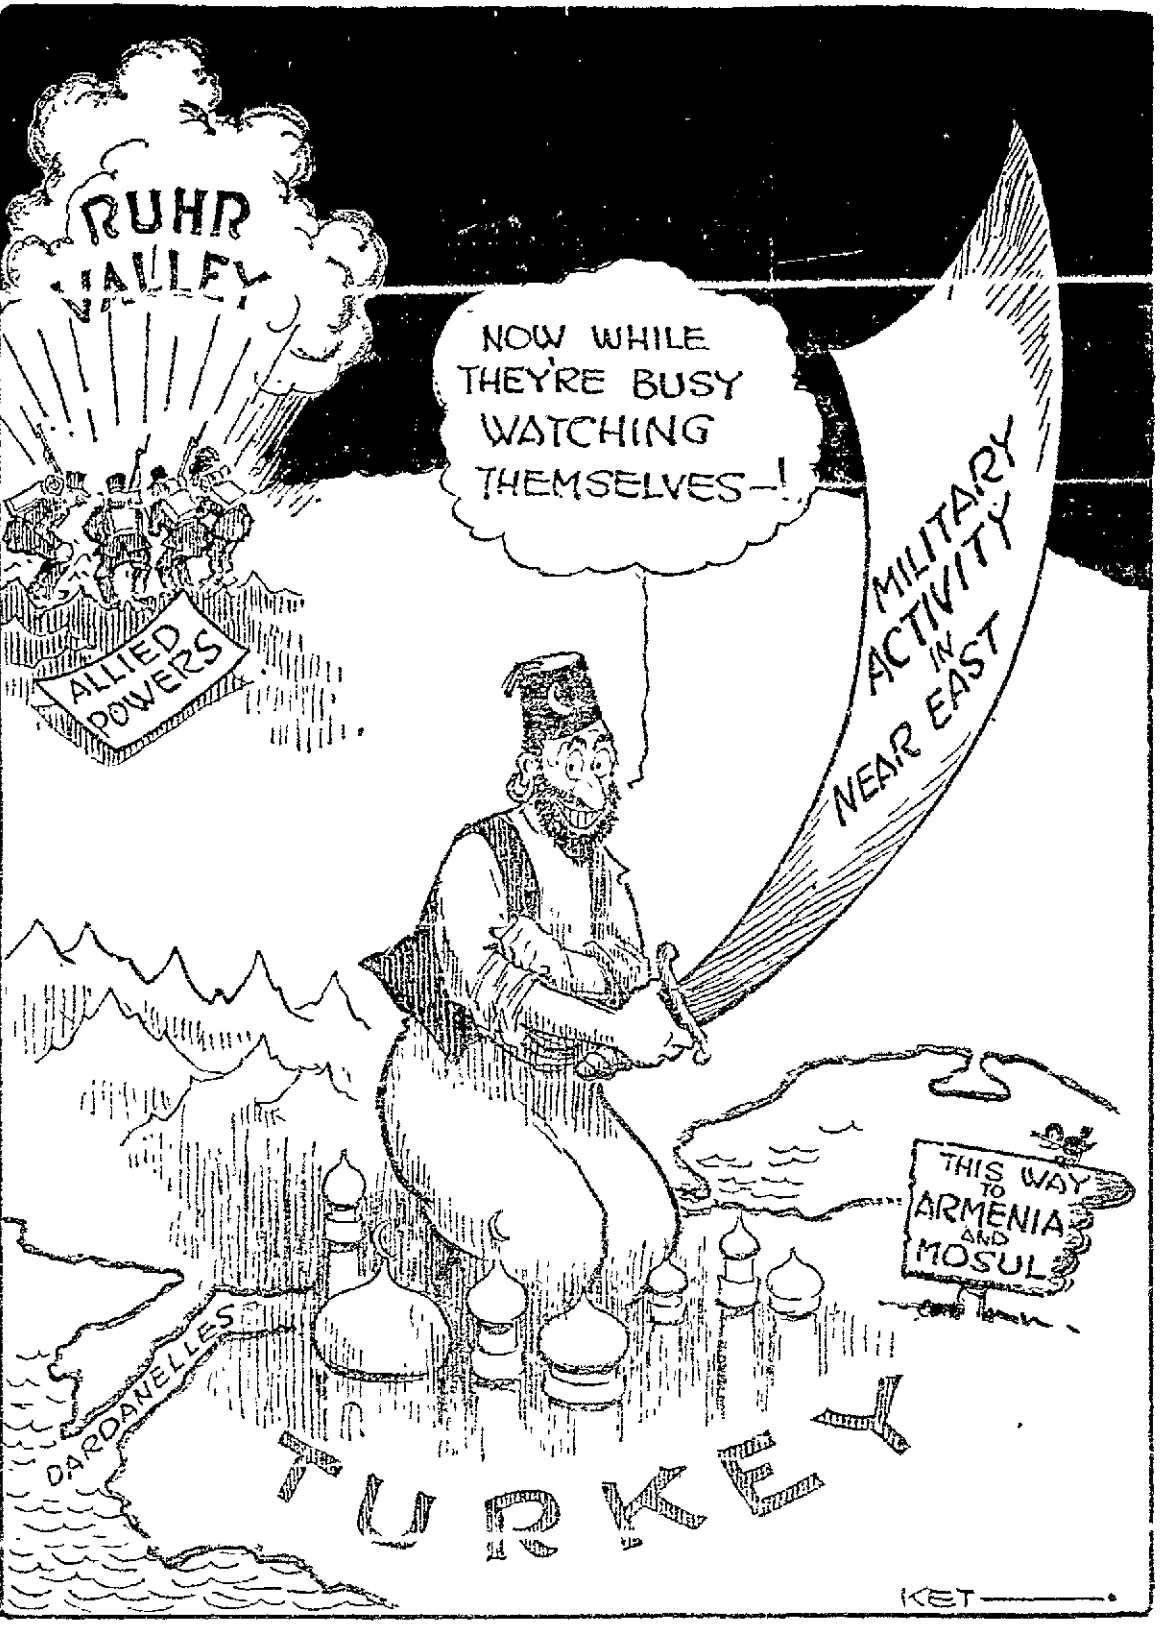

Mr. Hamilton told his wife about this.

"Did you know, dear," he said, "that a successful moving picture must appeal to ten million shopgirls and five million servant-girls?"

"Really?" exclaimed Mrs. Hamilton, who had her own domestic problems. "But where are these five million servant-girls?"

Which was rather a puzzling rejoinder to Mr. Hamilton until he hit upon the logical answer: "Why, they are at the movies, of course."—From Everybody's Magazine for February.

TO AID RUSSIA.

The American Colonization Association of Paris has agreed to participate in the reconstruction work which is now being carried on in Russia by the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee has been received at the office of that organization.

The Jewish Colonization Association of Paris, an international organization colloquially known as Ica, was founded in 1901 by Baron Maurice de Hirsch a French banker and philanthropist, for the purpose of establishing Jewish farm colonies, agriculture colleges and trade schools, and credit banks. It now has a working capital of 300,000,000 francs.

Since the scope of the reconstruction program in Russia of the Joint Distribution Committee, for which $1,240,000 has recently been granted, is the same as that of the Ica, the two organizations have decided to combine their work as they have already successfully done in Poland, Lithuania, Latvia and Rumania.

In accordance with this plan, Colonel Herbert H. Lehman, chairman of the Joint Distribution Committee, has just been elected a member of the board of directors of the Ica. Colonel Lehman is the first American to receive this honor. The other ten directors have been chosen from the most prominent Jews in France and England.

CAMPFOL.

Campfolated oil (campfol liniment) is made by dissolving about an ounce of camphor gum coarsely powdered in about four ounces of cotton seed oil, sweet almond oil, or olive oil. The oil should be kept quite warm, the bottle tightly stoppered with a rubber cork lest the camphor volatilize. This camphor liniment is an excellent application for the chest, neck and bridge of the nose in acute coryza. It should be the choice for young children in any case where mother or nurse feels tempted to resort to such harsh remedies as mustard or turpentine or other external medicaments which may burn or blister. Campfolated oil may be rubbed over the chest twice a day for a few days if necessary.

Campfolated oil relieves the itching produced by certain plants, and some cases of simple pruritis (itching without apparent lesions of the skin).

Some persons experience much relief by inhaling camphor, suffering with acute coryza (wrongly called "cold" in the head), and for this purpose it is best to smell a bit of camphor gum held in the hand. This is also a familiar old remedy for neurotic headache—the kind of headache one develops when some trial or ordeal is to be evaded.

Taken internally, camphor gives a sensation of warmth in the stomach, stimulates the circulation mildly and acts as a mild sedative on the nervous system, producing a feeling of contentment. A grain or two of gum camphor, or 5 to 10 drops of spirits of camphor may be taken internally for palpitation, hicough, intestinal flatulence (gas discomfort) or neurotic fainting—the kind of fainting heretofore in old time novels, timely and effective, you know.

By thoroughly shaking up about three ounces of camphor liniment (campfolated oil) with one ounce of aromatic spirits of ammonia, one may prepare an excellent liniment with which to rub lame muscles and lame joints.

The gentle rubbing of the forehead with spirits of camphor, or better, camphor dissolved in cologne water relieves various kinds of neuralgia and headache.

THE PIONEERS.

A recent San Francisco despatch that has been widely copied by the papers of the State is very misleading. This despatch is to the effect that of all the thousands of pioneers who came to California in the gold rush of '49, only 23 remain. As the statement is credited to the Society of California Pioneers, it doubtless relates simply to those persons who belonged to that society.

The names of the 23 are given, but there were hundreds of pioneers who never were registered as members of the society. There are at least two pioneers of '49 now living in San Francisco whose names are not on the list. They are James Waters and Wade Johnson. There are several others in the county, we presume, but have not the names at present.

There has been a pretty heavy rain with the old pioneers, but they were a sturdy race and while such rain may have helped them in the early days, there are yet some left to tell the story.—Calaveras Prospect.

Explosion of Gas Caused By Leaky Pipe Plays Havoc

Injury to Couple; Damage

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—An accumulation of gas from a leaky pipe caused an explosion which completely wrecked the home of John Bacigalupi, 459 Nineteenth avenue, early today, burning him and his wife, Edith, severely and shattering every window pane in the building. The four children of the couple, asleep in an adjoining room, were thrown from their beds, but escaped injury.

The entire neighborhood was aroused by the blowing out of the gas oven in the kitchen, and the crash of glass which followed. Neighbors hurried into the house to find Bacigalupi bending over his wife, who had fainted, and fire licking its way along the floor. An alarm was sounded and an ambulance summoned.

The blaze was quickly extinguished, and at the Park Emergency hospital it was found that Mrs. Bacigalupi had suffered severe burns of the hands, neck, arms and face, and her husband had been burned on the arms, hands and chest.

Mrs. Bacigalupi had entered the kitchen to light the gas stove to prepare her husband's breakfast. There had been a leaky pipe and an accumulation of gas. An explosion occurred and both husband

Representative MacLafferty
Sends Telegram Asking
Special Election to Extend
Date on Navy Base Offer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(United Press.)—Representative MacLafferty of California today telegraphed the authorities at Alameda, urging them to hold a special city election this summer, extending for four years the time in which the government may accept 5000 acres of land set aside by Alameda for a great naval base.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—(By United Press.)—The specter of war on the Pacific was raised in the House naval committee today by Captain F. H. Ainsworth, representing the San Francisco chamber of commerce, in a plea for a naval base at Alameda, Calif., to "protect the American frontier."

"War is always possible," declared the former naval officer. He suggested that a great eastern power "threatened with a revolution at home might bring on a war" to stem the domestic tide of revolt.

Although agreeing with the decision of the committee yesterday that the time was too short at this session to get action on the MacLafferty bill authorizing the government to accept 5000 acres at Alameda for the proposed naval base, Ainsworth said a base adequate to care for the fleet should be established at once on San Francisco bay.

"We might as well look this matter squarely in the face and recognize that we are discussing war," he said. "San Francisco is a frontier community, and in the case of attack, the city would bear the brunt of it. That is why San Francisco believes the report of the naval board, headed by Admiral Rodman, was right in holding that a base on San Francisco bay was of first importance in the future defense of America."

Ainsworth asked what the United States would do if "some nation" landed fifty thousand men in the Philippine Islands. He said he had made three visits to the Orient since the world war, and found a marked anti-American sentiment in Japan.

Alameda, Jan. 30.—(United Press.)—Eight inches of snow fell last night on the mountains back of this city. Mount Wilson reports eight inches on the level this morning, with a heavy fall continuing.

STORM OVER, BUT SNOW ON HILLS PROMISES FROST

The storm has passed, leaving California and the entire Pacific coast with clear skies and sharp, cold weather. The forecast is for killing frost tonight and tomorrow morning.

Snow has been general on the hills throughout Northern California. There was still some snow visible on the Berkeley hills this morning. There were 14 new inches at Summit, making a total of 164. There are now 20 inches on the ground in Yosemite valley. Mt. Hamilton reports an additional fall of six inches, making twelve inches of snow there.

The rain extended into Southern California, which received more than half an inch.

Other California stations reported rain as follows: San Francisco, .13; San Luis Obispo, .40; Los Angeles, .50; San Diego, .60; Fresno, .08; Eureka, .04; Point Reyes, .09.

SAN JOSE HAS SNOW.
SAN JOSE, Jan. 30.—San Jose was given a taste of real winter late yesterday afternoon when a light flurry of snow fell in several sections of the city. Snow was reported in several other cities of the Santa Clara valley yesterday, Gilroy being among them.

Snow on the mountains on both sides of the valley was quite deep yesterday, there being a foot at Mt. Hamilton and Smith's creek, and about four inches in spots in the Santa Cruz range.

Hundreds of motorists journeyed to the snow on the Mt. Hamilton range, enjoying snowball parties throughout the afternoon. Snow was hailed to this city in automobiles and was thrown by the autoists at pedestrians in the business district.

SNOW AND ALMOND BLOOMS.
HAYWARD, Jan. 30.—Snow and rain, almond blossoms and sunshine were offered in the wintery show of weather in lower Alameda county yesterday. In the hills back of Hayward, and in the Niles canyon it snowed while the almond trees blossomed in the valley lands and periods of pouring rain were interrupted with warm sunshine.

Creeks, hitherto nearly dry, went almost wild in their attempts to impersonate rivers. Water in the Alameda creek, running through Livermore and Amador valleys and through Niles canyon, rose eighteen inches over Sunday.

IN SACRAMENTO VALLEY.
CHICO, Jan. 30.—Chico and the surrounding country is covered by snow, which began falling at 8:45 p. m. last night. The snow storm was preceded by a short hail and rain storm. The snowfall is said to be the heaviest in many years. By 11:15 p. m. two inches had fallen and snow was continuing to fall in large flakes.

valley indicated the storm was centering at Chico, taking in Durham, Gridley, Oroville and Marysville. At Durham the snowfall was so heavy that motorists found difficulty in making their way on the highways. Slippery pavements here resulted in many accidents.

SAN JOAQUIN FALL LIGHT.
MODESTO, Jan. 30.—Rain that has been falling intermittently for the past four days changed to snow for a few minutes yesterday, melting on striking the ground. It was a year ago today that Modesto experienced one of the few snowstorms in its history.

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 30.—Rain has been falling here all day and reports from the Ridge Route announce that snow has been falling near the summit.

STOCKTON, Jan. 28.—History repeated itself here today. On January 29, 1922, Stockton was visited by a snowstorm which left five inches of the "beautiful white" in its wake. Today, January 29, 1923, the southern part of the city was twice mantled to an appreciable depth and once roofs and streets in the business section were whitened with a mixture of snow and sleet.

SNOW ON PASADENA HILLS.
PASADENA, Jan. 30.—(United Press.)—Eight inches of snow fell last night on the mountains back of this city. Mount Wilson reports eight inches on the level this morning, with a heavy fall continuing.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 30.—A light rain began to fall here at 11 o'clock.

CHECKS FOUND VALUABLE.
SAN LEANDRO, Jan. 30.—Two checks, for $6 and $8, given to William Matthews, proprietor of a pool room and cigar store here by Joseph O. Burke, 1334 Pilgrimage avenue, Stockton, have been found to be backed with no funds. They were drawn on the Stockton Savings and Loan bank.

HOODOO SUBMARINE.

A FRIEND OF THE MAN AFOOT—This is Judge Charles L. Bartlett, big brother of all pedestrians. His home is Detroit, Michigan, cradle of motor vehicles, and he says that the lives of pedestrians must be safeguarded at all costs. He has ordered a psychopathic examination of all violators of speed and reckless driving laws, to determine their mental fitness to handle automobiles. —Keystone Photo.

A MODERN ELIZA—Crossing the ice wouldn't have been such a difficult feat for Eliza if she'd been equipped like the two steel shod experts shown above. Bobby Hearn, comedian of the ice, is shown shouldering a lot of responsibility in the person of Hilda Ruckett, famous fancy skater. The picture was taken at the Saratoga Springs (New York) Winter Carnival. —Copyright by Underwood.

A LOT OF CHINNING AND STRING PULLING TO THIS JOB—Treffle Gervais, an old Frenchman, is shown in his quaint little workshop in Boston, where he has made quite a name for himself as a maker and repairer of violins. He is known throughout the musical world that centers in and around Boston. Two of his children are well known pianists. —Keystone Photo.

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not produce narcosis, nor a heating, soothing, agreeable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, green-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them 15

EASTBAY CITIES TO VOTE MAY 8 ON WATER PLAN

People Will Decide Whether to Unite Under District System.

In conformity with a statute of 1921, which provided for a water district in the Eastbay region, an election will be held throughout the Eastbay territory for the formation of a public utility district on May 8.

The Eastbay Water commission has overcome local and engineering difficulties in the way of acquiring of an adequate supply of water, but the project is so tremendous in its financial obligations that it is not until the water commission can undertake the project, and it becomes necessary for the public to attack the problem.

This, says Clifton E. Heflich, city manager of Alameda, on behalf of the Eastbay Water commission, is the purpose of the May 8 election. His statement is as follows: "On May 8 an election will be held throughout the Eastbay territory for the formation of a public utility district, the purpose being to develop an adequate water supply for the whole Eastbay district."

"The water supply in this community for several years has been so inadequate as to be a major hindrance to the development of the area. Industrial expansion has suffered most acutely from a lack of water, and as a consequence all the accompanying developments such as residential and commercial activities have been hindered."

"The most acute situation was reached in the summer of 1918, when the residents of this district were unable even to water their lawns. This experience was forcibly demonstrated to the people that some remedy must soon be forthcoming."

"The local sources of water are limited in capacity, and as a consequence the ultimate solution of the problem must depend upon the bringing in of a supply from an outside source. Such a project will be of enormous dimensions and will entail such large expenditures of money that it is hardly likely that a private concern, such as the East Bay Water company, would be in a position to solve the problem. As a consequence, it becomes necessary for the public to attack the problem itself."

"The officials of the Eastbay cities have for some years been investigating the water problem. In December, 1918, there was appointed the Eastbay Water commission, which has three representatives, one from each of the cities of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and Richmond. Exhaustive studies were made of the local sources of supply, such as the El Cerrito, El Estero, the Sacramento river, the McCollum river and the El Estero."

PUBLIC UTILITY LAWS. The Eastbay Water commission soon discovered that the water problem confronting the Eastbay cities was not only a tremendous engineering and financial problem, but that there were serious legal difficulties to be overcome before a satisfactory co-ordination of the various cities could be effected.

"The area proposed to be benefited by this new water supply embraced a less than nine separate municipalities, and considerable contiguous unincorporated territory. Furthermore, one of the cities, namely Richmond, with its contiguous unincorporated territory, was in a different county from the rest of the area to be benefited. This condition proved a serious legal problem to be overcome."

"Studies were made of all the existing California statutes providing for the organization of water or public utility districts. There were five such statutes all passed since 1909, but it was found that all of them either provided for separate municipalities or were lacking in provisions that are essential to this case, so that none of the existing statutes was entirely satisfactory."

"It was therefore necessary for the Eastbay Water commission to draft a new statute to cover the conditions of the district. This new statute was drafted and presented to the State Legislature of 1921, where it was passed and as a consequence is now a law, known as the Public Utility Act of 1921. The election on May 8 will be held in conformity with this statute."

High School Alumni Players At Livermore Will Give Show

MISS HANNAH HANSEN, who will have an important role in the farce comedy, "Nothing But the Truth," to be presented February 9 by the alumni association of the Livermore high school.

Farce Comedy, "Nothing But the Truth," Will Be Offering on February 9.

LIVERMORE, Jan. 30.—"Nothing But the Truth," a farce comedy in three acts, that will be presented by the Livermore High School Alumni Association, on the evening of Friday, February 9, is fast taking shape under the direction of Miss May Nissen, and the hard work of the members of the cast.

The first and second acts have been thoroughly covered and rehearsed, and all three are being held three times a week. The cast, which is composed entirely of Livermore young people, all of whom are members of the high school alumni, constitutes the dramatic class of the Livermore high school. Every member of the cast has had previous experience in local amateur theatrical productions, either in senior plays given while they were in high school, or in recent performances given under the auspices of the Livermore American Legion, or Native Sons.

Tickets were placed on sale last week and the sale has started so briskly that a full house is assured. The play will be given in the Bursar's room and the battery has purchased supplies from which the high school students are making special drops and scenery for the production.

Proceeds from the performance will be used by the Alumni Association to purchase a new building for the high school.

300 Expected at Boy Scouts' Dinner

Reservations for the annual meeting and dinner of the Boy Scout Council at Elwell Hall Wednesday evening will be received at Scout headquarters in the Thayer building as late as tomorrow noon. It was announced by Scout Executive Elmer J. Bemiss. Only a few places remain to be taken, Bemiss said, and when these are taken no more room will be provided.

The leading attraction at the dinner will be James E. West, national Scout executive, who will deliver the principal address. West will sum up the development of Boy Scout work in America now in its thirtieth year.

Reports will be filed by President Abe P. Leach and Scout Executive Bemiss, and officers will be elected. An elaborate chart will be shown by Bemiss as exhibiting graphically the work of the Oakland Scout organization during the past year. His report will show that Oakland has the largest number of American

S.O.S. COMMITTEE NAMES COFFEE TO HEAD CAMPAIGN

Mass Meetings on Redwood
Peak Planned for Feb.
11 and Easter.

Rabbi Rudolph L. Coffe was nominated by J. Carl Seuberg, president of the Contra Costa Hills Club, as permanent chairman of the "Save Oakland's Sequoias" committee and unanimously elected at a meeting of its executive board held in the Chamber of Commerce last evening.

William J. Moorehead, reorganizing chairman of the S. O. S. committee, in giving as a reason for his resignation his candidacy for commissioner, declared that he would continue to serve.

Fred E. Reed, concerned with Moorehead that this campaign to preserve the redwoods should be kept free from politics.

Preliminary plans, as announced by Chairman Coffe are as follows: Organization of committees to determine the areas deemed necessary for park purposes, to secure their appraisal and the determination of the terms whereby they may be secured by the city of Oakland, with other committees to raise funds and conduct publicity, meetings and special events.

First of these events will be a great open-air meeting to be held in an amphitheater near the crest of Redwood Peak on Sunday, February 11, at 4 p. m. This will be made a celebration of Lincoln's Birthday as well. Members of the Contra Costa Hills Club who have scheduled a trip along the skyline to the peak that Sunday will take an active part in the arrangements.

This initial mass meeting will be followed by a series of similar events, announces Rabbi Coffe, who has already taken steps to secure a union undenominational observance of Easter in the sequoia groves.

APPEAL FAILS TO HALT SENTENCE

Frank Smith, convicted by Police Judge William J. Hennessey of a violation of the Wright Act, will be sentenced tomorrow in spite of a plea by Attorney Charles Wilson that the constitution of the United States was violated when his client was arrested after the seizure of evidence without a search warrant.

When his client was found guilty yesterday, Wilson gave notice of appeal, declaring he would attack the constitutionality of the charge. Smith was arrested by the police in a raid upon his home and sent to jail at 1141 East Fourteenth street.

In making his plea for dismissal of the charge, Wilson attacked a decision of the state supreme court in the case of the People versus Mayne in which it was declared that evidence seized by officers without a search warrant could not be used as evidence.

"If the state supreme court has the right to amend the constitution of the United States which holds against invasion of a home without a search warrant, then this court has a right to amend every other provision of the constitution," declared Wilson.

Wilson was thrown out of the Federal courts because the evidence was secured without a search warrant.

TWO HONOLULU FLYERS KILLED ON A JOY RIDE

HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 3.—(By Associated Press.)—First Lieutenant Rupert Julian and Private Charles Benson, victims of yesterday's airplane accident near Schofield barracks, were "joyriding" when the plane slipped into its fatal fall.

Lieutenant Julian, who coached the Schofield basketball team, was giving members of the team air rides. Benson was the third member of the team taken aloft by the lieutenant.

The dead lieutenant's home was at 1141 East Fourteenth street, near the intersection of the street and the railroad tracks.

Liquor Party Ends With 100 Day Term

SAN JOSE, Jan. 30.—Frank Crane, charged with entertaining a party at his home, was sentenced to 100 days in the county jail on a charge of unlawfully possessing liquor under the Wright act, his subsequent pleading guilty to the charge before Police Judge T. R. Daugherty yesterday.

Crane was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 or to spend 100 days in the county jail. Being without funds, Crane was taken to the county jail to start serving his sentence.

PRETTY CLOTHES, MUSIC USED AS NOVELIST'S AIDS

"The Custard Cup" Author
Tells Sororist Club of Her Methods.

Pretty clothes and musical accompaniment to her thoughts provide the whimsical setting for Miss Florence Livingston, successful novelist, when she is at work. Miss Livingston revealed the secret of her unusual methods of work yesterday when she was the speaker before the weekly luncheon of the Sororist Club at Hotel Oakland.

According to the local writer, whose first novel, "The Custard Cup," has gone through five editions and is now being filmed, recognition came to her only after fifteen years of discouragement and continuous defeat.

Miss Livingston confessed to the fact that she had written 1200 words on her writing with 5000 words the maximum of her completed task. She is at work upon her third novel.

Whether the Sororist women should adopt a uniform of dark shoes, rolled socks and bobbed hair was the burlesque motion upon which a four-minute parliamentary law drill, led by Mrs. L. G. Leonard, was based. Those who participated were Mrs. Edna Aber, Miss Eloise Cushing, Mrs. Carroll Greenleaf, Miss Ann Glover, Mrs. Erma Randolph, Mrs. A. B. Glaser. The motion lost.

A group of songs by California composers, including "The Sororist Club" will be represented in the campaign for the purchase of the Redwood area for a national public park, purposes by Mrs. Erma Randolph.

The position of the pole, purchased by the club for the "Necklace of Light" about Lake Merritt, was decided yesterday afternoon by a committee, including Mrs. S. Ballard, Mrs. Helena Gamble and Mrs. Carrie E. Hall. The Sororist pole will be located near the intersection of Twelfth and Oak streets.

Bigamous Bride Freed by Lack Of Prosecution

BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Because none of her three husbands would prosecute her, Mrs. Inez Johnson-Jones-Lopez-Goranson is free today.

Charges of bigamy hovering over the head of the 23-year-old feminine "love pirate" dissolved in air last night at Berkeley.

After a conference with officials of Contra Costa county, where the marriage of the young woman and Alfred Goranson, Berkeley teacher, took place last Tuesday.

Nelle Goranson, nee Lopez, Oakland gardener, whom the woman married last July, would swear to a warrant to set legal machinery in motion. As both men would be unwilling witnesses the authorities deemed it advisable to let the prisoner go.

Goranson was waiting for his "bride" when she was released last night and declares that he will take steps to annul the present situation and marry the young woman legally. Goranson and his "wife" were residing at 1104 University avenue when their honeymoon was rudely interrupted last week.

Officers Installed By Pythian Sisters

ALAMEDA, Jan. 30.—Elaborate ceremonies marked the installation last night of the officers for the ensuing year of the Pythian Sisters of Alameda. The installation was held in the hall of the organization at Oak street.

The officers are: Mrs. Mabel Jones, president; Mrs. Frances Rosenberg, excellent; Mrs. Josephine Ross, excellent; Mrs. Olive Chaplin, manager; Mrs. Laura Neles, mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs. Frances Melville, protector; Mrs. Ella Horner, outside guard.

A banquet was served at the conclusion of the installation.

Officers of the Pythian Sisters of Alameda were installed last night.

HAYWARD

HAYWARD, Jan. 30.—Placing upon the market of large quantities of storage eggs was credited, today, by P. C. Steiner, president of the Alameda County Poultry Producers' Association, as responsible for the present low market quotations for eggs. Steiner said that with a brisk opening of the production season and with a large amount of cold storage eggs to be disposed of, threatening an even lower market, poultrymen here are preparing to protect themselves against the period of low prices which must result.

Hayward Will Have New Nightwatchman

HAYWARD, Jan. 30.—Joseph Brandon, present special traffic officer here, was named additional member of the city's night police force at a special meeting of the city council last night. Brandon will act under the orders of Fred Schilling, chief of police, and will aid Louis Silva, present member of the night force, in guarding the city.

This action was taken by the council following a move, initiated at the regular meeting of the body January 17. Brandon was chosen from a field of three applicants. He will begin his duties February 1 and will continue to act as traffic officer in the afternoons. His service on the night force will start at 8 and continue through the night.

Rot Control to Start On Experiment Plot

HAYWARD, Jan. 30.—Sanitation of the brown rot control experiment plot in the orchard of Harry Owen, in Mount Eden, will be completed not later than Thursday, it was announced today following the arrival of R. A. Rudolph, of the State experiment station at Mountain View and in charge of the Owen plot, with a corps of workers. Rudolph will inspect the plot for control of the disease as the experiment progresses.

It is expected that within a week the first spray for control of the disease will be applied. The first spray, to be applied before the trees have blossomed, will be followed by others as the season advances.

Committee Plans For Towns' Co-operation

HAYWARD, Jan. 30.—Plans for furthering co-operation among towns of lower Alameda county were formulated at a meeting of the Haywards Chamber of Commerce yesterday. The committee will arrange for a series of visits to other civic bodies to be made by the Hayward chamber.

The committee will also arrange for the entertainment of civic representatives of other towns of the district at Hayward civic affairs. It is possible that an attempt may be made to establish some common organization among the towns through this committee.

Chamber Endorses Home Building Plans

HAYWARD, Jan. 30.—The home building proposal of J. H. Veterans of the Veterans Construction company, for the construction of a new home for a veteran, was endorsed yesterday at a special meeting of the board of directors of the Haywards Chamber of Commerce. It was announced today by J. H. Veterans, president of the board, that he will at once proceed to carry out his plan for the construction of homes.

Veteran's proposal is to build homes for Hayward residents to be financed by first and second mortgages on the buildings. Owners will pay off the mortgages in monthly payments. First mortgages will be taken by banks and second mortgages by business men. Support of the project has been general among both merchants and bankers here.

Hayward Planning For Many Tourists

HAYWARD, Jan. 30.—Preparations for an unprecedented number of spring and summer tourists are being made here as the result of the steady flow of inquiries in regard to agricultural and industrial opportunities of the Haywards Chamber of Commerce, through Northern California Incorporated, an agency organized to advertise the Haywards chamber throughout the nation. The chamber is now in communication with several interested prospective settlers here, according to M. A. Lee, secretary.

Woman of Alamo Is Hostess on Birthday

ALAMO, Jan. 30.—In honor of the birthday of her husband, Rollin Foster, and friend Mrs. J. H. Foster, Mrs. Foster entertained at a dinner party given at her home, "The Livorno," last Saturday night. Following the dinner, cards and dancing were enjoyed. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison, and Mrs. J. Starr Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. John Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hennessey, Mrs. Agnes Herzer and George Flaberty.

Resignations Given To Riverbank Council

RIVERBANK, Jan. 30.—Two resignations were presented to the city council of Riverbank at its last meeting. Mrs. Jeanette Gerten, who had been elected as a member of the council, and Mrs. D. Kelly, who had been appointed her successor, were both resigning.

The council, it is understood by W. O. Kimberling.

50-APARTMENT HOUSE PLANNED EAST OF LAKE

Promenade and Ballroom
Will Be Features of Proposed Structure.

Plans to construct a 50-apartment building overlooking Lake Merritt from the eastern side, were announced today by Oliver Kehn, manager of the Franklin Theater.

A private home will be a feature of the establishment, which will be located on the old Wheaton property on Lakeshore boulevard. The main part of the building will be used as a garage, which will be connected with the upper floors by means of elevators. A special sun-room nursery for the use of children of the tenants will be located on the roof. The plans, which are already drawn, provide that 25 per cent of the apartments shall have either a lake frontage or a southern exposure.

The buildings now on the site are to be torn down immediately to make way for the early construction of the new apartment house.

Traction Chief Host To Safety Council

Officials and executive committee members of the Eastbay Safety Council will be the guests of W. R. Alberger, vice president and general manager of the San Francisco-Oakland Traction Buses, at a luncheon at the Hotel Oakland next Tuesday.

Alberger's luncheon is in compliance to the new safety organization and its rapid growth.

Grant D. Miller, president of the Eastbay Safety Council; E. E. Thornton, secretary; Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Frank Colburn, of Oakland; L. H. Cromwell, Chief of Police James E. Deane, of Oakland; Chief of Police August Vollmer, of Berkeley; Chief of Police William Wainwright of Alameda; Robert W. Martland, Alameda County Auto Trades Association; Fred Hunter, superintendent of schools, Oakland; District Attorney Paul Deane, of E. C. Caywell, Abe Leach, Joseph R. Knowland, Charles Sommers Young and George H. Harris, executive committee members.

Mrs. Maude Becker Taken in Dry Raid

Mrs. Maude Becker was arrested on a charge of violating the "dry law" in a raid which was made in the Castro Hotel last night.

The raid was conducted by Police Officer E. F. Murphy and E. A. Teanle of the moral and narcotic squad. When they went into the hotel at 830 Castro street they found a man and woman in the living room and an empty whisky glass. When questioned by the two officers the couple stated they had purchased the whisky from Mrs. Becker at 50 cents a drink.

The officers found a quart bottle of whisky, which was about half full. Shortly after being arrested she was released on the deposit of $500 cash bail.

WAR MATTERS PLAN WHIST. BERKELEY, Jan. 30.—Berkeley Chapter, American War Mothers, will give a whist party tomorrow evening at Native Sons Hall, Shattuck avenue and Addison street, for the benefit of the relief fund for disabled veterans of the world war. Mrs. Hattie K. Irwin is the head of the Berkeley chapter. The benefit is open to the public.

JUST A LITTLE POSAM ENDS THAT ITCHING

Try this TESTED treatment tonight. Wash all the itching places thoroughly with Posam Soap and hot water. Then dab them over with a little Posam. Posam is such a CONCENTRATED relief that the very first touch stops the itching and burning and lets you sleep the whole night through—no more washing up to scratch and no more.

Your skin already it seems less angry. The redness is beginning to go. You can actually SEE how quickly the itching healing Posam treatment will clear away the stubborn old eczema. Posam and Posam Soap are sold everywhere. For trial sample, send 12¢ to POSAM, 243 W. 47th St. New York.

LICENSES ARE REVOKED. Three soft drink licenses were revoked today by the city council by request of the chief of police. They were: George Barker, 615 Broadway; F. A. Webster, 1635 Center; Mrs. M. Becker, 425 Castro.

Red Sea Region Giving Oil; Japanese Output Grows; Spain and Italy Drilling

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Continued oil production in the Red Sea region of Egypt is reported by the Egyptian minister of finance. The Anglo-Egyptian Oilfields Company holds the concession for developing the oil deposits of Hurgada and Gamsah. A total of 44 wells have been drilled at Hurgada, 13 of which are now producing and 31 are abandoned. The 22 wells in operation are now producing about 600 tons of crude per day, at the rate of 200 tons per well per day. The production is very heavy but is said to contain a high proportion of fuel oil. The operations employ 3,000 men and several American drillers.

EGYPTIAN PROSPECTING.
At Gamsah, on the African shore opposite the entrance to the Gulf of Suez, the Anglo-Egyptian Oilfields Company has sunk 22 wells, six of which were productive while only three are in operation at present. One of these wells drilled in 1914, was a gusher and flowed 4,000 tons the first day, flooding the surrounding territory with crude oil. The flow has decreased, however, until its present production is not over 10 tons a day, the total production at Gamsah being now about 50 tons per day. The oil from this region is light and rich in gasoline and kerosene, and the product of both the Hurgada and Gamsah wells is transported by sea to the government refinery at Suez.

The Egyptian government is producing oil at Abou el Bar about four kilometers from Hurgada, and at Abou el Bar. In the former locality one well is in process of being drilled and it is said that the indications are decidedly encouraging. At Abou el Bar, the total production has been sunk, petroleum has been found at a comparatively shallow depth in five of them. Enough work has been done to lead the government to expect to have this oil field in production within a few days.

JAPANESE OUTPUT.
Statistics have just become available showing that the main producing field of Japan in 1922 was the Aomori field, which produced 1,141,000 barrels of oil. The second largest field was the Iwaki field, which produced 1,000,000 barrels. The third largest was the Aomori field, which produced 800,000 barrels. The fourth largest was the Aomori field, which produced 700,000 barrels. The fifth largest was the Aomori field, which produced 600,000 barrels. The sixth largest was the Aomori field, which produced 500,000 barrels. The seventh largest was the Aomori field, which produced 400,000 barrels. The eighth largest was the Aomori field, which produced 300,000 barrels. The ninth largest was the Aomori field, which produced 200,000 barrels. The tenth largest was the Aomori field, which produced 100,000 barrels.

PROSPECTING IN ITALY.
The Corpo Reale delle Miniere (Royal Body of Mines) is now occupied with the question of prospecting for petroleum, according to the Italian minister of mines. The Italian government has been working for some time to develop the oil resources of Italy, and the Corpo Reale delle Miniere is the agency responsible for this work.

RAILWAY AND MINERAL.
The American Railway and Mineral Company has been awarded a contract by the Spanish government to develop the oil resources of Spain. The company is to be responsible for the drilling and production of oil in the region of the Pinar del Rio, near the town of Pinar del Rio.

CHICAGO JAN. 30.—Bullish based more or less on war-like aspects of barometer developments led to a little higher prices in the wheat market today during the early dealings. On the upturn in wheat, rather than the selling of wheat, bears put in a bid for the wheat market, which was the result of the fact that the wheat market was not as strong as it had been in the past.

FINANCIAL NOTES.
Permit has been granted by the Railroad Commission to the Delta Navigation Company, operating the Coibers launches between Stockton and points along the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers, for the transportation of passengers and freight, and to issue $175,000 of common stock. The company has applied for permission to issue and sell $175,000 of its common stock.

Stock Swindle Harvest in 1922 Over 600 Millions According to U. S. Probe

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Government estimates placing losses through fraudulent stock schemes at $600,000,000 in the year 1922 over, but half of the actual drain on the public pocketbook. Federal approximation took chiefly into consideration the "oil consolidation game" worked in the middle west, whereby deluded investors were persuaded to "go good money after bad," but passed over without recognition a scheme netting more than 100 million dollars.

INTERVIEW VICTIMS.
With these losses in hand, salesmen are sent out to visit these stockholders. They make their entries by stating that if they are there to discuss the future of the stock of which their loss is already a holder. They begin by praising the stock, but then they begin to tell the story of their own losses. They say that they have lost their money, and they are now looking for a way to get it back. They say that they have lost their money, and they are now looking for a way to get it back.

HOW SWINDLERS OPERATE.
It is to be understood that the swindlers are not all bad, and that many of them are actually honest men. They are simply men who are looking for a way to get rich, and they are willing to do anything to do it. They are men who are looking for a way to get rich, and they are willing to do anything to do it.

TWO MAYORS NET
MERRITT SPRIGS
FOR EXPERIMENT
TUN LAKE MERRITT

Oroville Executive Will Attempt to Domesticate Specimens of Wild Ducks.

All was quiet at Lake Merritt yesterday. The rain kept the birds at home while the more intrepid took themselves to the Berkeley hills to enjoy an outing in the snow.

So, two dignified visitors of the sacred confines of the Lake Merritt park were able to witness an experiment to every one an experiment one had not seen before.

upon and which the other, as host, was convinced to add.

The figure in question who walked the path of the parker looking for a perfect specimen of sprig were Mayor John Davis and Mayor E. W. Elmann of Oroville, whose hobby is the raising of wild ducks.

Equipped with all the artifices of art for the securing of birds and from the parkers invaded the feeding grounds of the flock of geese and ducks, the desired specimens for Mayor Elmann to experiment upon.

Mayor Davis turned the birds over to Elmann with the compliments of the city and now they are on their way to Elmann's farm to be domesticated, as have other species of the brethren.

Several weeks ago at the solicitation of Elmann, who was determined upon the raising of a sprig, which always has defied his attempts at taming. He believed that the sprig of Lake Merritt being accustomed to the "feeding" auto horns and the thousands of persons who view them each day, would be more easily tamed than the specimens with which he had experimented.

PLAGUE IN RUSSIA.
MOSCOW.—Scandals are raging in southern Russia. The peasants refuse to take any steps to control the plague.

There's Your Sprig! Go Get it!

The mayor of Oakland, JOHN L. DAVIE, at right, pointing out the beauties of Lake Merritt to MAYOR E. W. ELMANN, of Oroville. Yesterday the mayors invaded the wild duck preserve for the purpose of obtaining specimens of sprig for Elmann to tame.

AUTOS KILL 699
IN NINE WESTERN
CITIES IN 1922

Oakland Fatalities Number 55, As Compared to 32 in Previous Year.

Six hundred and ninety-nine persons were killed in automobile accidents in nine western cities in 1922, compared with 575 killed in the same manner in 1921, according to statistics compiled by the police departments in the various cities.

During 1922, a total of 13,939 persons were injured in automobile accidents in seven cities, compared with 12,554 injured during the previous year in the same cities.

A total of 913 automobiles were stolen in eight western cities during 1922, compared with 878 in 1921, and 7859 stolen automobiles were recovered in 1922, compared with 7453 recovered during 1921 in the same cities.

Increase in the number of traffic deaths in San Francisco in 1922, compared with 1921, is proportional to the increase in population and use of automobiles, according to Harry Green, chief of the traffic bureau, San Francisco Police Department. Captain Gleason is a strong advocate of the enactment of laws which will require persons who drive an automobile to submit to a rigid examination touching upon their qualifications in that regard before they are permitted to drive.

Elks to Give Play
During Reno Trip

The recent dramatic success, "Wei Wash," of the Oakland lodge of Elks is to be presented to the "Bills" of Reno, Nevada, by the local lodge which visits the Nevada city.

The play will be the feature of the evening's entertainment. The story of the play is centered about a Chinese bootlegging joint. It made such a hit at the annual Christmas party of the Elks here that, when the lodge determined to visit Reno, they decided to put the play on for the edification of their hosts.

The local lodge will also put on an original Chinese Elks' initiation. The "funsters" include Dr. Fred Batkin, Dr. Earl C. Clement, Bob Abernathy, Jos. Mills, H. J. Anderson, and Max Horvinski. The local Elks will leave Friday, February 2, and spend a day in Truckee with winter sports before proceeding on to Reno.

Man, Hit By Trolley,
Dies From Injuries

John O'Brien, 35 years of age, cashier of the White House, died today at the Central Emergency hospital as the result of being run down by a street car late last night.

His passing means that a cock-old baby girl, born to Mrs. O'Brien at Mary's Help hospital, is fatherless.

O'Brien had visited the hospital last night and was crossing the street when he was struck. He suffered a fractured skull. He resided at 2183 Fifteenth street. Arthur Brindle, 222 Richmond avenue, motorman of the car, was charged with manslaughter.

Juvenile Lodge
Installs Officers

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—The Fraternal Brotherhood Juveniles installed officers at the meeting last night in Musicians Hall. Noble Pinson was installed as president. The following officers installed: Dolores Bates, past president; Pearl Two-good, vice president; Esther Mallanni, chaplain; Doris Pinson, secretary; Clyde Bumgarner, sergeant-at-arms; Fred Robinson, mistress-at-arms; Julia Trautvetter, inner doorkeeper; Margaret Vidal, outer doorkeeper.

District Deputy W. S. Haywards was installing officer, assisted by E. H. Brown and Mrs. Lola Corey. The ceremonies were followed by a banquet.

Improvement Bond
Time Continued

RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—Time for the sale of the improvement bond of the streets in the San Pablo Villa tract was extended a week in order to allow property owners to pay up their assessments.

A street light was ordered installed at the corner of Eighth street and Bissell avenue.

The petition of 36 residents for a street light at the intersection of Eighth street and Lucas avenue was referred to the light committee.

SCHOOL BOARD
MEMBERS IN HOT
BATTLE OF WORDS

Koo Koo Club Dance at Lockwood Junior High Causes Clash.

As the result of recent operations on behalf of the Koo-Koo Club by President Harry Boyle, this organization at Lockwood Junior high school succeeded in having an eighth grade graduation ceremony, and precipitated a battle in the board of education between Boyle, Director Daisy Short, and Principal Harold Welty of Lockwood.

Mrs. Short alleged that the president of the board secured a permit for the use of the school building for social purposes, though the principal of the school was not consulted.

"It was a young social club," said Boyle, "and its right to a party was denied. I took it upon myself to get them a permit."

"I charge you with furthering a social club with undemocratic ideas," said Mrs. Short.

"Then file formal charges," said Director Campbell. "Otherwise I object to your vilifying board members."

"No member of this board can interfere with the operation of a school," contended Mrs. Short. "I am for the use of schools for social purposes, but against any organization which disrupts the morale of the school."

"That is the only school which has been denied the dance privilege," said Boyle.

Principal Welty said the Koo-Koo Club was never denied anything by the principal because it had never asked him anything.

"I'll not argue with you," said Boyle. "You're paid to teach. Any organization can use that school for social purposes, whether it is a Koo-Koo club or not."

Boyle said Welty to "keep on teaching school" and "keep still."

Welty explained later that the Koo-Koo club was an organization of eighth-graders. As the eighth grade has had no graduation ceremony, and is not supposed to have any since the ninth became the graduation grade, this class decided to hold a graduation of the eighth grade "on its own." They were about to hire a hall but were given the school.

CRONKHITE CASE APPEALED.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 30.—Federal Judge Brown today permitted counsel for Roland R. CronkHITE, former army sergeant accused of murdering Major Alexander P. CronkHITE at Camp Lewis, Washington, October 25, 1918, to appeal to the United States supreme court. Pothier on January 11, was held by Judge Brown for removal to Tacoma, Washington, for trial. The appeal starts his removal.

CU CLUX WOMEN PARADE.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Jan. 30.—Despite a heavy mist, the women of the Cu Clux Klan paraded, numbering approximately 50, in full regalia through the downtown district here last night.

School Board to Invite
13 Bodies to Bond Parley

Thirteen organizations representing from seventy to two hundred sub-organizations, will be asked to send delegates to confer with the board of education concerning the proposed new bond issue.

This was decided last night by the board, after a meeting of the committee of the whole, which decided to invite ten organizations to choose their delegates. The other three were added by the board itself after accepting the committee of the whole report.

The ten organizations first decided upon were: Chamber of Commerce, Oakland Teachers' Association, organized labor, tax bodies (including Tax Association, Downtown and Uptown clubs), Parent Teachers' Association, Merchants' Exchange, League of Women Voters, Real Estate Board, Civic League of Improvement Clubs, and Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs.

At the board of education session, Director Ormsby suggested that an invitation be given to the Public Education Advisory Board, the old Education Board, and the old Board of Education.

The board of education also declared itself in favor of a charter amendment backed by organized labor providing that labor on public buildings shall be composed of citizens of Oakland. This is similar to the San Francisco statute. The board adopted it unanimously, though the district attorney will be asked to advise on its constitutionality.

LABOR PLAN FAVORABLE.
Director George Hatch suggested that the organization of presidents of the various lunch clubs be invited, and this was finally agreed, after which Director Ormsby suggested that women presidents of clubs be invited also, and this was also agreed.

The board of education also declared itself in favor of a charter amendment backed by organized labor providing that labor on public buildings shall be composed of citizens of Oakland. This is similar to the San Francisco statute. The board adopted it unanimously, though the district attorney will be asked to advise on its constitutionality.

Joseph Lloyd, representing the Building Trades Council, spoke to the board as follows:

"We have noticed that school house construction under the old bond issue has been 50-50 between residents and persons who come from the outside. In some cases, 7 out of 10 are non-residents; and this despite the resolution of the board providing that residents be employed. We know the board's hands are tied in a way, but we feel we have been unjustly dealt with."

"We are not speaking of unions. The unions can take care of that end of it; but we feel that citizens of Oakland should help build Oakland schools. San Francisco closes the gates. We want an amendment like San Francisco's. If we get a square deal in the future we are willing to forget the past."

The board also took bids for various school jobs, as follows, with the low bidders:

Plastering—University High school, T. D. Sutton, $12,750.

Lakeview addition—General, P. W. Maurice, $11,800; brick work, E. S. Peters, $11,500; plastering, M. E. legal.

Ever Stick Suction Plate with TruByte Teeth $15

ONE MAN KILLED,
THREE PERSONS
HURT BY AUTOS

One man is dead, and three persons are suffering from injuries today as a result of automobile accidents of the past twenty-four hours.

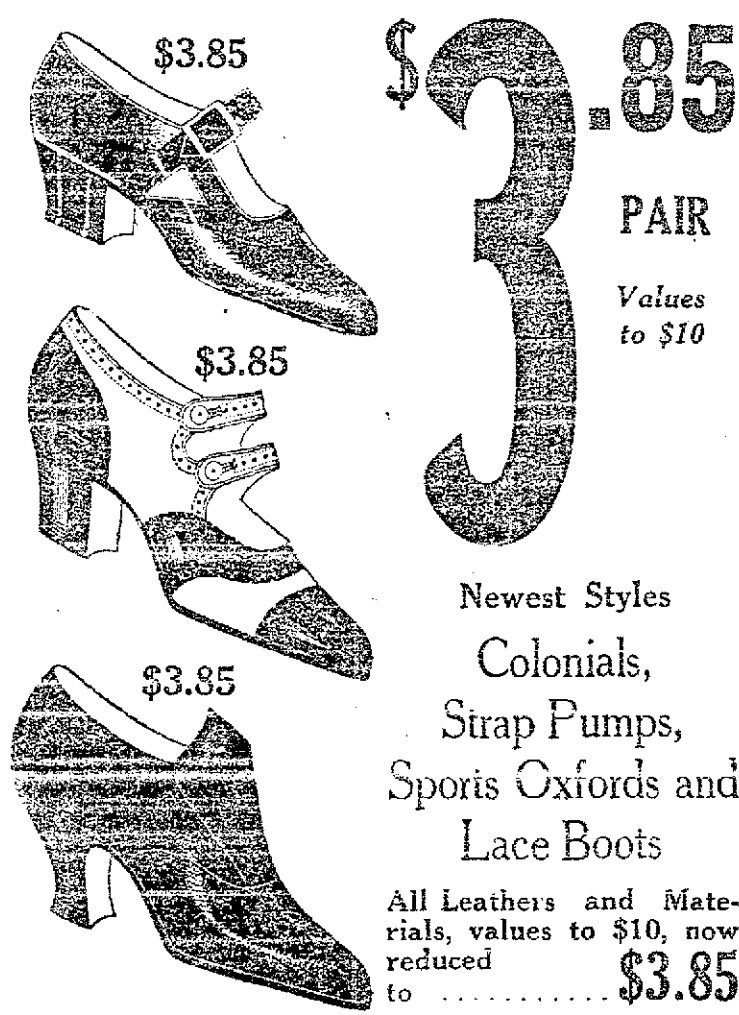

DEAD.
PATRICK BUCKLEY, 72 years old of 3150 Geary street, San Francisco, died last night at the Mission emergency hospital from injuries received Sunday night when he was struck down by an automobile, which sped away. The driver was not apprehended.

INJURED.
RUSSELL H. KING, 4 years old, 6 1/2 year old, and RAYMOND BUTT, 6, 1875 Third avenue, both of San Francisco, were probably fatally injured late yesterday.

The King boy was run down by a Shell Oil truck at Thirteenth and Folsom streets and suffered a possible fractured skull and internal injuries. Young Butt suffered internal injuries and a broken collar bone when the "kiddie car" on which he was coasting down Fourth avenue sped out into Irving street, San Francisco, and hit the fender of an automobile driven by Lloyd Hunt, 2635 San Margaret Court, Alameda.

WALTER ORBELL, of 534 Twenty-second street, Oakland, was seriously injured early today when he was struck down by a motorist who failed to stop, as he was getting into a machine at Twentieth street and San Pablo avenue.
